Homemade Shampoo Erik Fishner, 2016-03-07 In our everchanging world, the need to get back to basics has become a prominent movement over the last decade. The realization of the harm that humans have created on this planet has provoked this movement. Being green is no longer a choice, but more of a moral obligation. Ecologically minded people have banned together to come up with positive solutions to perpetuate an earth-conscious mindset. Communities as a whole are becoming more self-sustaining. Within this ecological inspiration, each individual looks at what they can do to contribute. They are finding the best way to initiate Eco mindfulness, is right in their own homes! The products we use daily for hygiene and beauty, are chemical ridden and costly. There have been studies that define the link between these harmful products to several undesirable results on our health. Their production leads to more waste, harming the environment further. It is for the better of everyone that we stop contributing to the poisoning of the planet, and ourselves. When we begin our quest for knowledge on how to benefit our family and ourselves with ecologically sound choices, the amount of information can be overwhelming. So, why not start with the basics? We all enjoy looking and feeling our best. What better way to reflect your healthy, ecological positive lifestyle, than a gorgeous head of hair? Together, we'll explore alternatives to store bought shampoos. We'll learn to use organic, natural ingredients to achieve hair health and growth. With accessible recipes, you'll be on your way to lovely locks!

Ato Z Shampoo Recipes for Total Beginners Lisa Bond, 2017-10-10 Save Hundreds of Dollars Making Your Own, Better, More Healthy Shampoo. This Book includes links to 50 plus, free healthy Mexican Recipes. Did you know that an average person has around 130,000 strands of hair on their head? Can you imagine what happens when you do not take care of all these strands? Wayne Rooney is a professional footballer that underwent a hair transplant. A hair transplant is the right way for fixing hair loss, but guess what? It can cost you an arm and a leg! Scientists have discovered that overuse of commercial shampoos can cause deadly hair loss problems. Let us do an easy five-minute procedure that will end up making a nice smelling, cheap, natural and reliable shampoo. Making one's hair oily has a lot of reasons behind it. Most commercial shampoos are acidic, denuding your hair glands that produce natural oils. To resolve this issue, you have to go organic. The benefits that come with an oily hair include having a natural protective substance - the natural hair oil. If you do not have an oily hair, there is no cause for alarm. The variations seen between oily and non-oily hair mostly result from genetics. The shampoo moisturizes and softens greasy hair. It also protects the hair against the environment, especially harsh sunlight. Do you want to save money? If you yes, then you can make your natural shampoo that's way better than most expensive commercial shampoos. Here is how.

Homemade Shampoos J.D. Rockefeller, Producing your personal shampoo is not a new inkling; in fact, ladies and homemakers for years have been producing their own shampoo, and before today's commercially produced shampoos became accessible. In those days, women would usually wash their hair with homemade products that were effective and great at keeping their hair healthy and looking good. Men still admired ladies and found them to be gorgeous, even before the introduction of these modern shampoos. This book is not saying that the chemically produced shampoo is bad, but some manufacturers, in a bid to make profit, continue to add harmful chemicals to their products. These chemicals may not have immediate effects; rather the side effects may start manifesting in old age or affect you so many years later. Recently, most people have developed an interest in green living and have opted for alternatives and it has driven them to make their own shampoos and conditioners. The main benefits of producing your own shampoo are basically to save some money and also to escape the terrible chemicals that most commercially made shampoos, lotions, and body products have in them most times. So, let's get started!
