She'ra Salena Williams, 2010-09-15 Shera is a beautiful young girl who came into the world carrying a curse from the spell the voodoo priestess WuTu Amutar of Stellenbosch, South Africa; she had placed this curse on Shera's ancestors who lived generations before she was born. While Shera was growing up in a village in Stellenbosch, South Africa, her mother, MumDo, shelters Shera from her unique and usual human conditions that does not allow her to run free from the bondages of her half-human side. The village people are frightened from the many mysterious dead animal parts often found throughout their village, where their children often play with their playmates. The local doctor, Dr. Zotlar Amutar, runs a free health clinic in which he tries to keep the villagers calm and healthy. Shera's beauty is challenged by the jealousy of an attractive young girl, Testa Cronwell, who does not want to see Shera succeed in life, nor does she want Shera to find love. Testa Cronwell wants to seduce Shera's handsome cousin Lazar Dumonga. Somehow, Shera is not quite bothered by the distractions of others because she is an ambitious young girl who dreams of finishing school. She is surprised by an inheritance she never saw coming, which has allowed her to travel outside the country of South Africa. There is one thing that some individuals will experience from Shera's half-human side that they never saw coming nor will they ever be able to tell about the destruction of life beyond recognition. Shera meets the distinguished professor Joseph Damant, who gives her the attention she needs to help her to start a career as a CEO of the Wellington Wines International. Professor Damant is her first crush until she visits New Orleans. In New Orleans, she will meet a father she never knew, Priest Adam Moore, and she will meet an interesting multimillionaire, Lucas Cane. The parties attended by Shera will show her ability to enter into a crowded room with beauty and grace. She will show how family and friends mean so much to her. Shera's half-human side will show how she does not tolerate bad decisions and bad actions made by others who cross her path.

How He-Man Mastered the Universe Brian C. Baer, 2017-03-07 Elaborate cinematic universes and sophisticated marketing tie-ins are commonplace in entertainment today. It's easy to forget that the transmedia trend began in 1982 with a barbarian action figure. He-Man and the other characters in Mattel's popular Masters of the Universe toy line quickly found their way into comic books, video games, multiple television series and a Hollywood film. The original animated series (1983-1985) was the first based on an action figure, and the cult classic Masters of the Universe (1987) was the first toy-inspired live-action feature film. But it wasn't easy. He-Man faced adversaries more dangerous than Skeletor: entertainment lawyers, Hollywood executives, even the Reagan administration. The heroes and villains of Eternia did more than shape the childhoods of the toy-buying public—they formed the modern entertainment landscape.

She-Ra and the Dark Pool John Grant, 1985

Turning Darkness to Light Valerie Estelle Frankel, 2019-08-06 She-Ra and the Princesses of Power, the 2018 Netflix show, takes many characters and themes from the beloved eighties cartoon. Nonetheless, clear distinctions appear in the more body-positive, diversity-friendly modern show, that avoid all the sexualized Barbie shapes and body builder physiques of the past. More interestingly, this version blurs the lines between friends and enemies as it carries young Adora on a precarious journey to face the family, now her enemies, whom she cannot bear to leave. With this, it adapts the classic heroine's journey for a new audience, reframing the adored characters and showcasing the stories a new generation wants to tell.

Drive Daniel H. Pink, 2011-04-05 The New York Times bestseller that gives readers a paradigm-shattering new way to think about motivation from the author of When: The Scientific Secrets of Perfect Timing Most people believe that the best way to motivate is with rewards like money—the carrot-and-stick approach. That's a mistake, says Daniel H. Pink (author of To Sell Is Human: The Surprising Truth About Motivating Others). In this provocative and persuasive new book, he asserts that the secret to high performance and satisfaction—at work, at school, and at home—is the deeply human need to direct our own lives, to learn and create new things, and to do better by ourselves and our world. Drawing on four decades of scientific research on human motivation, Pink exposes the mismatch between what science knows and what business does—and how that affects every aspect of life. He examines the three elements of true motivation—autonomy, mastery, and purpose—and offers smart and surprising techniques for putting these into action in a unique book that will change how we think and transform how we live.
