Singed Dorothy Cannell, 2021-03-12 Confidences shares during bridge bring a dastardly plan to light. Can Primrose and Hyacinth, the Flower Detectives, dig up a solution or will a burial arrangement be in order?

Singed Daniela Cascella, 2017 Fiction. Art. The smell of singed paper haunts me. Is this a burning, is it a song? Sing, singed. Cascella's radically experimental poesis conceives of text as a space of doing but also stillness, of transmission but also interference. In SINGED she writes criticism that includes silence, repetitions and dead ends; that retains mystery and the unspoken, in a language out of synch; that interrogates the very the necessity of using language: Where does the necessity to speak and write arise from, and what are the hooks I can hold on to in the absence of records?
