Peter B. Orlik

Superb Tuček Jan, 2015-07-22 První dvě třetiny publikace podrobně mapují klasické automobily Škoda Superb s páteřovým rámem a šestiválcovými motory z období 1934 až 1950, včetně od nich odvozených vojenských vozidel. Poutavý text doprovázejí dobové černobílé fotografie, ale také kresby a faksimile výkresů z archivu společnosti Škoda Auto, přičemž většina ilustrací je zveřejněna poprvé. Vedle technických údajů kniha nabízí i dosud nepublikovaný detailní přehled výroby jednotlivých modelů a jejich karosářských verzí. Závěrečná třetina publikace je věnována třem generacím moderních vozů Škoda Superb od roku 2001 po současnost a připomíná i studie Montreux a Tudor z let 2001 a 2002. Ilustrace jsou tentokrát barevné, včetně technických kreseb. Poprvé jsou zveřejněny podrobné přehledy výroby automobilů Superb první a druhé novodobé generace, včetně rozlišení podle karosářských verzí, stejně jako počty vozů smontovaných v Indii a vyrobených v Číně. Finále knihy tvoří představení automobilů Škoda Superb a Superb Combi ročníku 2015, které právě přicházejí na trh. Celkově kniha obsahuje 215 ilustrací, z nichž je přes 60 barevných, a také 12 celostránkových faksimile dobových výkresů.

Transmissibility and Cultural Transfer Jennifer, 2014-04-15 Edited by Stephanie Schwerter and Jennifer K. Dick, Transmissibility and Cultural Transfer: Dimensions of Translation in the Humanities brings together monumental voices in the social sciences—such as Jean-René Ladmiral from Paris and Peter Caws from Washington DC—to begin to address the Humanities' specific issues with and debt to translation. Calling for a re-examination of how translations are read, critiqued, and taught in Philosophy, History, Political Science, and Sociology departments, this book provides tools for reflection, bases for reconsideration of given translations, and historical observations on how thought has been shaped across national borders. The volume ends with four case studies—examples from auto-translation in postcolonial literature, cultural issues of translation in Chinese-language cinema, negotiating meaning between linguistically and culturally different audiences in the United States and Lebanon, to verbal-visual questions of translation in marketing to German and French clients. All in all, this book is a comprehensive, compact survey of the cultural and linguistic translation and transmission issues in the social sciences today. Transmissibility and Cultural Transfer: Dimensions of Translation in the Humanities is illuminating and informative.

Making Sense of Nature Noel Castree,2013-08-15 We listen to a cacophony of voices instructing us how to think and feel about nature, including our own bodies. The news media, wildlife documentaries, science magazines, and environmental NGOs are among those clamouring for our attention. But are we empowered by all this knowledge or is our dependence on various communities allowing our thoughts, sentiments and activities to be unduly governed by others? Making Sense of Nature shows that what we call 'nature' is made sense of for us in ways that make it central to social order, social change and social dissent. By utilising insights and extended examples from anthropology, cultural studies, human geography, philosophy, politics, sociology, science studies, this interdisciplinary text asks whether we can better make sense of nature for ourselves, and thus participate more meaningfully in momentous decisions about the future of life – human and non-human – on the planet. This book shows how 'nature' can be made sense of without presuming its naturalness. The challenge is not so much to rid ourselves of the idea of nature and its 'collateral concepts' (such as genes) but instead, we need to be more alert to how, why and with what effects ideas about 'nature' get fashioned and deployed in specific situations. Among other things, the book deals with science and scientists, the mass media and journalists, ecotourism, literature and cinema, environmentalists, advertising and big business. This innovative text contains numerous case studies and examples from daily life to put theory and subject matter into context, as well as study tasks, a glossary and suggested further reading. The case studies cover a range of topics, range from forestry in Canada and Guinea, to bestiality in Washington State, to how human genetics is reported in Western newspapers, to participatory science experiments in the UK. Making Sense of Nature will empower readers from a wide range of fields across the social sciences, humanities and physical sciences.
