Full Smite James Lewis, 2023-08-02 Angels and demons are real, and they are fighting for your soul as you read this. An angel named Artemas awakens in heaven to find Mishael, a principality angel, standing by. He quickly begins to explain where she is and what she must begin to do. Heaven captivates the attention of Artemas, often causing her mind to wander off during training. Mishael immediately understands that keeping this trainee focused isn't going to be easy. Artemas is tasked with assisting humans to accept Jesus as their Lord and Savior. She is delighted at the opportunity. However, once she leaves heaven's atmosphere, she is exposed to the army of darkness. Fierce battles between angels and demons rage constantly around her while she accompanies Mishael for some serious on-the-job training. Mishael and Artemas witness a woman named Ethel Poirier being saved. This serves as an example of the final step in every assignment Artemas is given. Artemas is then taken to her first assignment, Dustin Stillwell. After many bad experiences in his life, Dustin is addicted to pain medication, selling drugs, and has turned away from God completely. In learning that Dustin has three days left to live, Artemas frantically begins to battle for his soul against the demons trying to take it for themselves. She finds out just how difficult it can be to steer the human heart back to God after so much time is spent away from Him. Using her heavenly powers and the mentorship of Mishael, Artemas gets to work. At times, Artemas feels overwhelmed by the complexities of her assignment--raging heavenly battles, constant demon attacks, the obliviousness of humans, and of learning all about herself. Will she be able to save Dustin's poor soul? Or will he be lost to the darkness?

S.M.I.T.E. Episode One the Nuclear Attack Donald Uttenmacher, 2011-11-04 SMITE Episode I: The Nuclear Attack is a spellbinding fiction novel, teetering on the edge of reality. The story begins in 1983 with the bombing of the Marine Corps barracks in Beirut by a Hezbollah terrorist. In that actual terrorist attack, 241 marines and other military personnel were killed. Frustrated by the lack of retaliation, five army officer candidates form a tight-knit secret organization, whose mission is to seek and destroy international terrorists. The organization, named SMITE (Secret Military International Terrorist Exterminators), plays a key role when five al Qaeda terrorists from Iran infiltrate the United States with dirty bombs and threaten a nuclear attack in five major cities. With a surprise ending, the reader is left with a keen appreciation of the need for stronger national security, and a better understanding of the serious threat posed by global terrorism. The book offers fiction with a reality base, creating a dichotomy for the reader could a terrorist attack such as this occur in our country?

The Life and Times of Flannigan Smite Braden Wortz, 2013-05-10 When journalist Jacob Florlen sets out on a journey to find a long lost musician who is rumored to still be living in the backwoods of Tennessee, he is both surprised and amazed at where his journeys take him. By weaving together a rich tapestry of vernacular music, religion, human psychology, mythology, and American history, this story tells the tale of two doomed men and their individual quests to conquer their own demons. One is a young reporter attempting to reconnect with his past. The second is an eccentric, storytelling fiddle player by the name of Flannigan Smite. It is a story steeped in the ethos of American folklore, from the Irish immigration of the 1800s, through the Postwar Era of the 1950s. This is a story that spans across hundreds of years of American culture. It is sure to excite the imaginations of readers and to remind them of their own sordid histories.
