We Are Here Cat Thao Nguyen,2015-03-01 Told through the bright and unflinching eyes of Cat Thao, a girl born in a refugee camp, We Are Here is a memoir that begins in 1975 with her family's gripping exodus by foot out of post-war Vietnam - a dangerous journey, unimaginable to most, on which most perished. The escape of Cat Thao's family from persecution traverses the horrific jungles of Khmer Rouge Cambodia and into the crowded refugee camps of Thailand. From which, finally, the Nguyens were allowed to board a Qantas plane to a freedom they wanted desperately. But the stark, contrasting suburban landscapes of Western Sydney, Australia were not the unalloyed blessing they'd imagined. Against the backdrop of an immigrant experience, Cat Thao tells of her coming of age in Australia, haunted by lingering trauma but buoyed by instincts of hope, reinvention and survival. In a voice both candid and striking, Cat Thao details her struggles with growing up: from her bad skin and hairy legs, to Vietnamese mysticism and kinship, and bound throughout by familial loyalty and honour. With wit and poignancy, We Are Here explores an Australia of the 80s and 90s, and a family's tireless journey for peace through a young woman's absolute determination to find her place.

Thao Nguyen Phan: Reincarnations of Shadows L. Aspesi,F. Griccioli,2024-02-20 Lush multimedia landscapes blend dreamlike narratives and folk traditions to reflect upon the colonization of Vietnam Inspired by the geography of Vietnam, Thao Nguyen Phan (born 1987) combines literature, oral tales, fairy tales and myths to trace the history of her home country and reconstruct its cultural heritage, addressing pressing issues related to contemporary environmental and social changes.

Asian Catholic Women Thao Nguyen,2019-11-20 Studying the various movements among women in the Catholic Church in Asia, the author argues that the preexisting male-dominated church rooted in the colonial era is now being challenged to recentralize itself and exercises an inclusive and participatory ecclesiology in which women should become fuller members of the church and participate in the decision-making processes of the church. For only when the church in Asia discovers and recognizes the richness of women's potential, leadership, charisma, and vision, will it be able to witness to the Gospel values and fulfill its vision of mission in Asia. The author shows that Asian Catholic women have played and continue to play a crucial role in designing and carrying out multiple areas of the church's ministries that men failed to do. Furthermore, the author shows that through the interactions and dialogue with Asian bishops in recent decades, Asian Catholic women have gradually influenced the Asian bishops' consciousness of women's issues and concerns.

Intellectual Property Taxation Jeffrey A. Maine, Xuan-Thao N. Nguyen, 2004 The 2012 Student Update is accessible by clicking here. This casebook is the first to provide interdisciplinary coverage of two exciting areas of the law: intellectual property and taxation. Valuable business assets are increasingly in the form of intangible assets such as patents, trade secrets, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, and computer software. Moreover, with the arrival of global, e-commerce transactions on the Internet, new forms of intellectual property, such as domain names and web contents, have emerged. The creation, development, acquisition, and sale and licensing of these intellectual property assets have significant tax consequences. Authors Maine and Nguyen adopt the problem method in addressing intellectual property taxation, and cover both general and special tax principles governing different forms of intellectual property. The book's ten chapters are each devoted to the taxation of a major IP transaction such as intellectual property research and development, acquisitions, sales and licenses, and judgment awards and settlements. Every chapter contains a set of relevant problems, a summary of the black letter law, and excerpts of important cases and administrative pronouncements.

Silicon Valley Bank Xuan-Thao Nguyen, 2024-02-15 This book provides a first-hand account of the founding, ascent, and dissolution of Silicon Valley Bank (SVB), a tech community bank founded in 1982 with US$5 million that became the nation's 13th largest bank and tech industry's lender and bank. In this pathbreaking work, which challenges conventional understanding of risky tech lending by showing how an independent community bank became the go-to bank for the tech industry in the United States, Xuan-Thao Nguyen includes interviews with key players, ranging from the original founders and early employees to the current CEO of SVB. Chapters explore how the relationship between the venture capital (VC) industry and SVB transformed the way commercial banks comply with banking regulators while lending and nurturing young tech clients. The book demonstrates why the relationships between investors, start-ups, bankers, lenders, experts, lawyers, regulators, and community leaders are key ingredients for ongoing innovation in the tech industry. The book concludes with the sobering dissection of SVB's sudden death by $142 billion cuts inflicted by tech bros, social media, and the Federal Reserve Bank's successive interest rate hikes to squash the overheated economy.

Saturdays at Liberetta Cal Mackenzie, Phương Thảo Nguyễn, 2021-08-25 When tragedy strikes a woman they loved, six friends gather at a coffee house named Liberetta to honor her life. That conversation inspires them to continue to meet each month to talk about their own lives and the challenges they face as young professional women in a rapidly changing Việt Nam. Careers that flourish and flail, mothers who push them forward and pull them back, loves found and loves lost: in their stories are all the complexities that confront modern women in a traditional culture. Social change is full of opportunities, as these women learn, but also of vexations and disappointments. As they discover on their Saturdays at Liberetta, it is good in times like these to have such friends who listen, who challenge, who support, and who care. Nguyễn Phương Thảo is a government specialist in GIZ Việt Nam and a former diplomat. Her work has brought her to many countries in Southeast Asia. She holds a Master's degree in international business from the University of Sydney (Australia). She is the founder and owner of Liberetta, the coffee shop where these stories are told, many of them drawn from the experiences she and her friends have lived. Cal Mackenzie is a writer and photographer who has resided and traveled widely in Việt Nam. His happiest hours there have been spent in the company of Vietnamese women and men, listening to them tell the tales of their lives.
