Keep the Change Steve Dublanica,2011-09-06 Tipping is huge in America. Almost everyone leaves at least one tip every day, more than five million American workers depend on them, and we spend $66 billion in tips each year. Omnipresent yet poorly understood, tipping has worked its way into almost every nook and cranny of daily life. In Keep the Change, bestselling author Steve Dublanica dives into this unexplored world, traveling the country to meet strippers and shoeshine men, bartenders and bellhops, in a hilarious and eye-opening effort to answer those perennial questions: Should we tip? and How much?

The Tipper Chronicles Hollis Williams,2019-12-01 One often smiles seeing a Pembroke corgi ambling down the sidewalk or running across a yard. With their long bodies and short legs, corgis have a big-dog personality in a compact size, and they make great pets. Corgis are very intelligent and like to be in on the action. They are working dogs, problem solvers, and clowns, and they are very independent. What is it like to have a corgi? A friend said it this way: "You think you have a corgi, but the corgi has you." This book is the story of Tipper, a rescue alpha female Pembroke corgi that by chance was acquired by the author and his wife. Details of their experiences over fourteen years make up the vignettes in this tribute and serve as counsel for those considering inviting a corgi to be part of their households.

The Adventures of the Talking Tipper Trucks Jodie Bain,2013-06-12 It was a typically warm summers day as the tipper trucks rested together under the shade of gum trees while their drivers had lunch. The trucks enjoyed a break from carrying the heavy loads of gravel and took the chance to cool down and have a chat. Hodgy an old V8 square cabin style tipper truck was particularly grumpy today as he had been at the rear of the four trucks and his sky blue paint was covered in dust. He chuffed to the other trucks with a small cough. I am sick of being at the back. I heard we are doing the steep part of the road next. My driver Glen is the most experienced so he may even get to lead!

Tipper the Nipper Gets Rescued Melinda Kerr,Jane Skarratt,2001

Tipper the Happiest Dog Jeanne Emanuel,Thomas A. Emanuel,2013-05-03 Tipper is a delightfully happy dog whose vigorous and friendly personality immediately charms everyone she meets. Born somewhere in Rosarito Beach in Baja California, Mexico, Tipper didn't have the happiest beginning in life. Lost, mistreated and abandoned she was discovered one rainy night under a truck by a loving and kind couple. She was just a tiny bundle of black and white fur, wet cold and hungry. They just couldn't resist taking her home until they could find her owners or new people to care for her. Tipper was told by her mother to believe in the big dog in the sky and she would always be happy and never alone. Tipper follows her mother's advice feeling her purpose is to find a good happy home, which she does with two people who adore her and she truly becomes the happiest dog. Written from Tipper's point of view this is truly an enjoyable read for children and adults alike.
