When his friends Annamay and Pipe help him to realize his dream, they are all unaware of the danger brewing in the prison below Lower Land. The guardian wizard, Garthian, has been poisoned by none other than a prisoner called Evilius. Evilius knows of an ancient secret held by the Tree of Time, a secret that could lead to the destruction of Lower Land and life as they all know it, one that he intends on using for exactly that purpose. Lower Land will not be the adventure Tobi expected it to be, but rather a quest for survival, not only for his own life, but for the entire Lower Land and all of Time.

I tried to scream but before I knew it, his other palm was right there, covering my mouth. I was just there with my back against this brick wall in this dimly lit alley. I was making muffled sounds and crying but with the loud music blaring from the party that was going on inside, no one could hear me. - Page 61 I thanked her and before she left my room, that afternoon, she said, "One day, you too might find yourself in situations beyond your control. When that happens, do your best to be true to yourself. Have one colour on all sides." - Page 82 "You can always control yourself, Christian. When another human is screaming at you and trying to tell you no, your mind registers that and your body can choose to follow suit. You can and could've controlled yourself. - Page 98
