Hotel Chiller Jane Vespe, 2019-06-05 This book is about a married couple, Richard and Leena Fine. Richard Fine is a millionaire, and Leena Fine is a manager of a clothing store and is an actress. Richard Fine is the owner of Hotel Chiller in Los Angeles, California, and runs one of the biggest chains of hotels in the state of California. Fine retired part-time from his job for about a year and wanted to spend more time writing books. He always dreamed of writing books about glamorous actresses whom he met in Hollywood, California, and Los Angeles, who spent their time at Hotel Chiller. Richard was always fascinated with glamorous women. This inspired him to go to college for four years, where he obtained a master's degree in English. During his studies, Richard Fine travelled the world. For years, Richard Fine took photos from events that he attended in England, Italy, and California. He also got his inspiration for writing when his wife, Leena, appeared on the television show Rikers Hospital and portrayed a rich lady in Los Angeles. She was a freelance writer for the television series as well. When he travelled the world with his gorgeous wife, Leena, Richard kept a photo collection until he decided when he was ready to write. One can tell that the Fines love travelling around the world. They are not your average everyday couple. Wherever they go, excitement is in the air for these two, and they are always up for a challenge. You never know what is going to happen at any event. Another interesting thing about them is that they seem to find murder or any kind of trouble wherever they go, whether it's on vacation or in book-signing events or because they're trying to help bail out a friend. Murder and trouble are their hobbies. However, as busy as they are, they still find lots of time for love and snuggles in between and keep their marriage full of love. In this book, a fan is stalking Richard Fine. And he and his wife, Leena, are trying to solve the disappearance of their daughter. Richard Fine is on his book-signing tour, and after the third event, he is threatened by a fan online, and security is alerted. Sara, a dedicated fan, becomes suspicious at his first book-signing event and even more suspicious at the third event in New Jersey, where she witnesses the stalker's attempt at trying to hurt Mr. Fine while waiting online. Sara runs to security. Sara does get questioned by Mr. Fine before the last threat and clams up in the photo room, trying to hide information because she's scared. For if a judge were to find out Sara was in danger, she could be put into custody for her disability. In this story, Richard attends his first book-signing event and speaks about I Loved Her in the Eighties. He introduces his actress Maria St. John. He has met her in the eighties, and then he goes and speaks about the nineties and how he photographed gorgeous actors and actresses, including Rachael Goldstein from the picture Civil Liberties and Jim Rod, who appeared in Ben Franklin, Long Ago. One fan travelled to his events and is suspicious of someone stalking the author Richard Fine. This stalker becomes obsessed with his wife, Leena Fine. The Fines are also undercover to find out information about the disappearance of their daughter. In a year's time, Richard becomes an aspiring writer who gets more than he bargains for when his favorite best-selling book, I Loved Her in the Eighties, reaches a stalker who finally threatens Richard and his wife, scaring three thousand people, including his wife, at one of his book-signing events in New Jersey.

La fabbrica delle vespe Iain Banks, 2015-12-18 Frank Culdham, il diciassettenne protagonista della Fabbrica delle vespe, è uno dei personaggi più cattivi della letteratura, non solo contemporanea. Frank odia: il padre, ex hippy con manie da scienziato pazzo; la madre, che lo ha abbandonato subito dopo averlo messo al mondo; tutte le donne, quasi tutti gli uomini e la maggior parte degli animali, per non parlare del mare. Frank ha un fratello, Eric, maniaco incendiario appena uscito dal manicomio. E ha un amico, Jamie il nano, con cui trascorre le notti al pub, ubriacandosi per rendere interessante una vita assolutamente priva d'interessi. Frank è un ragazzo di un'intelligenza perfida, che uccide a sangue freddo bambini innocenti, insetti minuscoli, vespe e conigli. Frank non piace a

Un nido di vespe Davide D. Longo, 2019-11-29 Valerio Guerra è un ragazzo invecchiato precocemente. Laureato in Archeologia, si è ritrovato a rincorrere una serie di stage non pagati in giro per l'Italia e ad essere silurato alla Scuola di Specializzazione. All'alba dei trent'anni la vita gli ha portato via un padre e tutti i sogni di gioventù. Si ritrova disoccupato, senza un soldo, a sopravvivere in un paesino disteso sulle rive del Lago Maggiore. Per sbarcare il lunario fa i più svariati lavori, che di solito si risolvono in contratti di pochi mesi, e con un paio di amici fidati svuota le cantine delle ville della sponda lombarda, rivendendo quello che è ancora in buono stato nei mercatini della zona. A tempo perso lavora anche come detective in nero, senza licenza: casi di corna, per lo più, o liti tra vicini di casa. Valerio non vive, sopravvive, e la sua unica gioia è osservare il suo gatto, Robespierre, che governa il loro piccolo appartamento come se fosse una magione vittoriana. Finché un giorno René, commissario di polizia e vecchia conoscenza del padre di Valerio, gli mette sotto il naso la foto di un anello longobardo e il caso di omicidio ad esso collegato. Da quel momento il ragazzo si ritroverà invischiato in una rete di omertà, silenzi e violenza che pulsa sotto la superficie della provincia sonnolenta come una rete di organi cancerogeni: un nido di vespe in cui convivono politica, imprenditori e polizia, nel quale Valerio Guerra proverà suo malgrado a mettere le mani. Davide D. Longo, laureato in Scienze Storiche, vive e lavora in provincia di Varese. Ama leggere, recitare, scrivere, vivere la vita. Nel 2017 ha pubblicato il romanzo poliziesco Il Corpo del Gatto (Leucotea Edizioni). Un nido di vespe è il primo di una serie di romanzi con protagonista l'investigatore senza licenza Valerio Guerra.

Oceanography from Space Vittorio Barale, J.F.R. Gower, L. Alberotanza, 2010-04-26
To all those sailors / Who dreamed before us / Of another way to sail the oceans. The dedication of this Volume is meant to recall, and honour, the bold pioneers of ocean exploration, ancient as well as modern. As a marine scientist, dealing with the oceans through the complex tools, ?lters and mechanisms of contemporary research, I have always wondered what it was like, in centuries past, to look at that vast ho- zon with the naked eye, not knowing what was ahead, and yet to sail on. I have tried to imagine what ancient sailors felt, when "the unknown swirls around and engulfs the mind", as a forgotten author simply described the brave, perhaps reckless, act of facing such a hostile, menacing and yet fascinating adventure. Innovation has always been the key element, I think, for their success: another way, a better way, a more effective, safer and worthier way was the proper answer to the challenge. The map of our world has been changed time and again, from the geographical as well as the social, economic and scienti?c points of view, by the new discoveries of those sailors. One of the positive qualities of human beings is without doubt the inborn desire to expand their horizons, to see what lies beyond, to learn and understand.

Earth Observation with CHAMP Christoph Reigber, 2005 In the summer of 2000 the German geo-research satellite CHAMP was launched into orbit. Its innovative payload arrangement and the low initial orbit allow CHAMP to simultaneously collect and almost continuously analyse precise data relating to gravity and magnetic fields at low altitude. In addition, CHAMP also measures the neutral atmosphere and ionosphere using GPS techniques. Three years after launch, more than 200 CHAMP investigators and co-investigators from all over the world met at the GeoForschungsZentrum in Potsdam to present and discuss the results derived from the extensive data sets of the mission. The main outcome of this expert meeting is summarized in this volume. The book offers a comprehensive insight into the present status of the exploitation of CHAMP data for Earth system research and practical applications in geodesy, geophysics and meteorology.

The Biology of Hover Wasps Stefano Turillazzi, 2013-01-29 This book represents the culmination of the author's lifetime work on a single fascinating group of insects, the hover wasps, Stenogastrinae. The author explores the biology of these little-known wasps at the threshold of sociality, presenting an ambitious survey of ideas about their evolution and an assessment of the current standing of controversial concepts. Following taxonomic and morphological descriptions, the behaviour, colonial dynamics, social communication and especially the remarkably diverse nests of wasps are discussed. Compared to the better-known species of paper wasps, hornets and yellow jackets, the hover wasps show various peculiarities, such as characteristics of immature brood rearing, nest defence and mating systems. The nest architecture probably presents the most variable solutions in social wasps and is characterized by an astonishing level of camouflage, making these insects an interesting example of special adaptation to forest environments.

TEN ZEN OXEN a Way-Showing Path of Enlightenment Raymond Vespe, 2024 The Ten Ox-Herding Pictures have been used for over one-thousand years as a teaching paradigm for individuals on a spiritual path of awakening and liberation from ego-self's conditioned dualities, separations, ignorance, attachments and errors and of realizing original, inborn and enlightened True Nature.
