Frederick County, Maryland Land Records Abstracts, 1784-1788, Liber WR5 Through WR7 Patricia Andersen, 2021-03-25 This volume includes three libers done under the supervision of William Ritchie, Clerk of Frederick County Court, and labeled WR5 through WR7, covering 1784 to 1788. Some of the more interesting records include the sales of confiscated British property, including the Frederick Town lots and the ground rents owned by Daniel Dulaney of Daniel, who left for England at the beginning of the Revolutionary War period, sold at auction during the war to raise funds for the effort. Also in this volume are deeds for several new towns, including New Town, Liberty Town, Taney Town, Middletown, Creagerstown and Woodsberry. Although it is becoming increasingly easy to access these records online through the Maryland State Archives, the value that abstracts offer in locating records through their every name indexing, cannot be matched with the indexes available online, which only list the principals in an indenture. The current indexes were prepared by the circuit clerks to identify property owners, and to assist the clerks in land title searches and often omitted other items. Users of these volumes understand much more is involved in family research. Deeds can be particularly useful in identifying family relationships. Abstracts are best used as brief guides and indexes to original records, and to find people mentioned in deeds who would otherwise be lost in the records. This series of abstracts focuses on the names of parties in the deeds. This volume contains three indices to aid the researcher: an index to full-names, which includes an occupation section (occupations will sometimes help distinguish a man); an index to place names; and an index to land tract names. The name index includes slaves and free, mulattos and

Negroes, listed under Negro to make identification easier for researchers. The name index also includes town lots. 2021, 81/2x11, paper, index, 214 pp

Has Christianity Failed You? Ravi Zacharias,2010-07-06 In 2006, Ravi Zacharias International Ministries (RZIM) held an open forum at the Fox Theater in Atlanta to address the subject: Has Christianity Failed You? Tickets were sold for the event and--to the complete surprise of everyone--the event was sold out with a capacity crowd of over 5,000. People lined up offering to buy tickets from folks in line for higher prices. Before the event, an RZIM cameraman walked the streets and asked people if they had rejected the faith they held at one time. One answered that, because of a Christian's rejection of his gay lifestyle he had done just that. Another answered that she had left her faith because she had fallen into adultery and could never live it down in the church. Others had their own reasons. Some said it was just intellectually untenable in an age of reason. They chose to come to the event to judge if there were adequate answers. It is estimated that for every one person who writes a letter or attends an event, there are one thousand who agree. If the Atlanta crowd was any indication, the question is real and troubling. Why is it that many live with silent doubt, many leaving the evangelical fold for something else? Is there something wrong with the message, the communicator, the hearer . . . or is it all three? It's time to ask the hard questions of what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ and why it seems as though God has made it so hard to continue believing. In fact, the son of a prominent US Senator phoned me with that very question. Why has God made it so hard to believe in Him? Such skepticism is not just representative of the hostile; it also represents many honest questioners. This book attempts to lay out the response to those within as well as those outside the Christian faith so as to understand what it is we believe and why it is so hard to do so. More to the point: Why it is actually so hard to deny God and still make sense out of life? In the end the answers should be both felt and real, with the added truth that God is nearer than you think. He desires that we sense Him very near to us and not distant. But closeness comes at a cost just as any relationship of love and commitment does.

The Tiger in the Grass Harriet Doerr, 1996 In her first collection of short stories, Harriet Doerr reveals the same startling sensitivity and sculpted prose that made Stones for Ibarra a runaway bestseller... The fifteen works comprising The Tiger In The Grass explore the magical power of memory as it harvests experience, bringing us a wealth of unforgettable characters, including eccentric 82-year-old Great-Aunt Alice, who, empowered by a lucid memory, lives out her final years with grace... and Edie, who arrives in California from England and brings sanity to a house with five half-orphaned children and a despairing widower.

Inspiring Writing through Drama Patrice Baldwin, Rob John, 2012-11-22 Inspiring Writing through Drama offers interactive, high-quality drama schemes that will motivate and inspire students aged 7-16 to write for a range of purposes and audiences. Each drama unit offers:

- A planning grid flagging the writing opportunities within the drama
- Original resources, such as poems, text messages and fragments of graffiti
- Individual, group and whole-class writing opportunities, some teacher-led and others guided by the students
- Icons to signpost differentiated activities

Reading, writing, speaking and listening opportunities are embedded within the drama experiences, and you can follow the schemes or use the texts as a springboard to developing your own drama units and writing opportunities. The authors offer guidance on using drama strategies imaginatively and encourage you to assess the impact on the writing outcomes of your students. This book offers a clear methodology and high-quality practical drama activities that will motivate students to write purposefully within compelling imaginary contexts.

Recent Advances in Computational Optimization Stefka Fidanova, 2015-07-14 This volume is a comprehensive collection of extended contributions from the Workshop on Computational Optimization 2014, held at Warsaw, Poland, September 7-10, 2014. The book presents recent advances in computational optimization. The volume includes important real problems like parameter settings for controlling processes in bioreactor and other processes, resource constrained project scheduling, infection distribution, molecule distance geometry, quantum computing, real-time management and optimal control, bin packing, medical image processing, localization the abrupt atmospheric contamination source and so on. It shows how to develop algorithms for them based on new metaheuristic methods like evolutionary computation, ant colony optimization, constrain programming and others. This research demonstrates how some real-world problems arising in engineering, economics, medicine and other domains can be formulated as optimization tasks.

Topics in Cryptology - CT-RSA 2009 Marc Fischlin, 2009-03-26 The 2009 RSA conference was held in San Francisco, USA, during April 20-24. The conference is devoted to security-related topics and, as part of this, hosts a distinguished track for cryptographic research. Since 2001 the proceedings of this Cryptographers' Track (CT-RSA) have been published in the series Lecture Notes in Computer Science of Springer. The proceedings of CT-RSA 2009 contain 31 papers selected from 93 submissions, covering a wide variety of cryptographic areas. Each submission was anonymized for the reviewing process and was assigned to at least three of the 25 Program Committee members. Submissions co-authored by committee members were assigned to at least five members. After carefully considering more than 15,000 lines (more than 100,000 words) of reviews and online discussions, the committee selected 31 submissions for acceptance.

The program also included an invited talk by Kenny Paterson entitled "Cryptography and Secure Channels." I would like to thank all the authors who submitted papers. I am also indebted to the Program Committee members and all external reviewers for their voluntary work. The committee's work was tremendously simplified by Shai Halevi's submission software and his support. I would also like to thank the CT-RSA Steering Committee for electing me as Chair, and all the people from the RSA conference team for their support, especially Bree LaBollita.

That's Betty! Gregory Bonsignore,2021-11-23 An innovative and joyful picture book biography that celebrates the life and achievements of TV legend, pioneer, and activist Betty White. Betty White is a legend and icon (but you already knew that). In her eighty-year career, she has starred on some of the most beloved shows of all time (like The Mary Tyler Moore Show and The Golden Girls, along with dozens more) and has received multiple Emmy, American Comedy, and Screen Actors Guild Awards, as well as a Grammy and People's Choice Award, not to mention a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame! More than creating some of the most memorable roles in history, Betty has helped to make the world a better and more equal place. Early in her career, at a time when women had little power in Hollywood, she starred in, directed, and produced her own shows, creating opportunities for other women and for people from marginalized groups. She has campaigned to end bullying and has stood up for the LGBTQIA+ community. And she has devoted much of her life advocating for the fair treatment of animals. This innovative picture book biography follows a young boy who is doing a class presentation about Betty White...with a little help from Betty herself! Whimsical yet fact-filled, That's Betty! tells the story of a life well-lived while celebrating Betty's many fans. A Who Did It First? Book
