It doesn't help that the girls make up where relationships lack in their lives with irrepressible devotions to bar stools and booze. While Trista mourns the loss of her recently passed mother and deployed ex-fiancé, her best friend, Beth, quarrels with the overpowering addictions of alcohol and prescription drugs, leading her down a spiraling path of self-loathing and depression. The girls are joined by four young men, and together the group faces black eyes and jail time atop relationship and family strife.
