YURA - Married With My Enemy Fabby Alvaro,2021-10-22 Yura Wirawan, dalam hidupnya jika ada yang di bencinya itu adalah seorang bernama Nanda Augusta, teman SMAnya yang selalu tidak pernah absen dalam membully-nya. Mulai dari menyebutnya sebagai mata empat karena dia yang selalu mengenakan kacamata baca saat di sekolah, hingga di es krim kacang karena kulitnya yang menghitam karena dia yang sering berpanas-panasan dan beberapa jerawat yang muncul di wajahnya karena Yura acuh pada penampilannya. Jika Nanda sudah mengejeknya, maka Nanda tidak akan berhenti hingga membuat Yura menangis. Dan rasa dongkol Yura pada Nanda pun masih terbawa hingga mereka lulus sekolah dan akhirnya di pertemukan kembali di sebuah acara pernikahan salah satu teman SMA mereka. Tapi Yura bukan lagi si es krim kacang yang bermata empat di mata Nanda maupun teman SMA lainnya, dia Yura dengan penampilan berbeda yang mampu membuat mereka yang pernah mengejeknya menjadi berbalik memujanya. Lalu bagaimana dengan pendapat seorang Letnan Satu Nanda Augusta terhadap Yura Wirawan, apakah dia juga turut berbalik menjadi pengagum Yura Wirawan yang pernah di bully-nya?

Yura and Udneyu Peggy Brock,2019-10-15 Yura and Udneyu tells a fascinating history of a resourceful people. The beautiful, rugged north Flinders Ranges is the home of the Adnyamathanha. Their creation stories tell of their physical and cultural longevity in the region. However, their lives and community were seriously disrupted with the advent of British colonialism from the mid-nineteenth century. Using firsthand accounts from Adnyamathanha and archival sources this book traces the history of colonial incursion and Adnyamathanha responses from 1840 to the era of native title in the twenty-first century. From early violent encounters between Adnyamathanha and colonists looking for land to graze their stock, employment of Adnyamathanha in the pastoral and mining industries, through hard times during droughts and economic depression, the establishment of the United Aborigines Mission at Nepabunna, to the era of self-determination in the 1970s, Adnyamathanha have shown great resilience in their ability to adapt to changing circumstances while maintaining a strong sense of identity and community. Throughout, they have seized opportunities to inform the wider society of their cultural knowledge and maintain their rights to country.

Australian Languages Claire Bowern,Harold Koch,2004-03-18 This book addresses controversial issues in the application of the comparative method to the languages of Australia which have recently come to international prominence. Are these languages 'different' in ways that challenge the fundamental assumptions of historical linguistics? Can subgrouping be successfully undertaken using the Comparative Method? Is the genetic construct of a far-flung 'Pama-Nyungan' language family supportable by classic methods of reconstruction? Contrary to increasingly established views of the Australian scene, this book makes a major contribution to the demonstration that traditional methods can indeed be applied to these languages. These studies, introduced by chapters on subgrouping methodology and the history of Australian linguistic classification, rigorously apply the comparative method to establishing subgroups among Australian languages and justifying the phonology of Proto-Pama-Nyungan. Individual chapters can profitably be read either for their contribution to Australian linguistic prehistory or as case studies in the application of the comparative method.

Sounding Indigenous M. Bigenho,2016-04-30 Sounding Indigenous explores the relations between music, people, and places through analysis of Bolivian music performances: by a non-governmental organization involved in musical activities, by a music performing ensemble, and by the people living in two rural areas of Potosi. Based on research conducted between 1993 and 1995, the book frames debates of Bolivian national and indigenous identities in terms of different attitudes people assume towards cultural and artistic authenticity. The book makes unique contributions through an emphasis on music as sensory experience, through its theorization of authenticity in relation to music, through its combined focus on different kinds of Bolivian music (indigenous, popular, avant-garde), through its combined focus on music performance and the Bolivian nation, and through its interpretation of local, national, and transnational fieldwork experiences.

Yura’s world is literally turned upside down when she’s pulled through a mysterious mirror and into the strange land of Tolkinia, a world of magic and fantasy, where opinions of beauty are reversed. Now the girl who was bullied for her looks is beloved and admired for those same traits, while the knight she finds incredibly handsome is abhorred for his. Facing this mysterious new reality, Yura must decide if she wants to return home to normalcy or embrace the distorted views of this new, war-torn world.
