The Art of Japanese Paper Dominique Buisson, 1999-02-01 A unique & comprehensive look at paper in Japan, lavishly illustrated with over 260 color photographs. While the Japanese place great importance upon the idea or the beautiful, paper also plays a utilitarian role, in the form of lanterns, parasols, fans, wrapping paper, or playthings such as kites, dolls & origami. Hence the craftsman who fashions it draws attention to the sensuality of its feel, its delicate fragrance & varied hues.
