The people of that slow-paced city in the deep south, would find themselves instantly propelled into a destiny that would change, not only their lives, but the entire world. The killing of 22-year-old, Theophilus Monroe III, better known by his community as #HeMatters, set off a chain reaction of events that would force its citizens to find and accept a dark secret from their city's past, change the way newlyweds, Gabe and Chanel Mathis, find love in their home, and made all of them watch hate start vicious fire that would come to cleanse their city if they could not find peace before it was too late. Theo's soul was truly the heart of the city he loved so very much, and his absence split that heart into two halves. Until finally I decided to go over there - just to get away from the black hole that was my house.
