Brougham's Bargain Danni Roan , Belinda Drummond has never been allowed to make a decision in her life. After a match made by her mother goes terribly wrong, she finds herself alone and at the mercy of an uncle she has never met. Can a simple hostler make a match to save the girl from shame and sorrow? Brougham is a man with too much past and no right to a name he has abandoned. His mountain home, lonely, isolated, and filled with hard work, has been his refuge and saving grace. Will the ghosts of the past give him the courage to help one in need or will they shatter another life in the process?

George IV: The Rebel Who Would Be King Christopher Hibbert,2015-11-03 Hibbert delivers a superbly detailed picture of the life and times of George IV including his exorbitant spending on his homes, his clothes, and his women; his patronage of the arts; his 'illegal' marriage to Catholic Mrs Fitzherbert, and lesser known facts such as his generous charity donations and his witty one-liners, including one he uttered when he met his bride-to-be (Caroline of Brunswick) for the first time: 'Harris, I am not well, fetch me a brandy.' George IV was the son of George III (who went insane and inspired 'The Madness of King George') and was the founder of the prestigious King's College in London.
