SKGB 007: REFLEKSI BELAJAR Kampus Guru Cikal & Komunitas Guru

Belajar, 2016-12-28 Merdeka Belajar: Pentingnya Refleksi Refleksi dalam praktik sehari-hari seringkali terlihat sebagai obrolan biasa yang dianggap tidak penting. Padahal, refleksi justru kunci belajar bermakna pada semua tahapan pembelajaran. Refleksi mengubah keberhasilan dan kegagalan menjadi pelajaran dan inspirasi. Simak tulisan dari Guru Najelaa Shihab tentang pentingnya refleksi dalam proses belajar. Refleksi adalah salah satu dimensi kompetensi yang paling penting untuk pelajar yang merdeka belajar. Refleksi tidak mudah, bukan hanya butuh terampil berpikir tetapi juga butuh sikap berani berada dalam situasi yang tidak selalu nyaman. Di sekitar, kita melihat banyak orang dewasa pun sulit melakukannya, sering lupa diri, atau sulit menerima umpan balik. Apabila tujuan pendidikan kita adalah memerdekakan, maka refleksi bukan cuma jadi tradisi di akhir tahun, tapi menjadi prioritas sejak dini yang dibiasakan. Refleksi bukan sekadar introspeksi, bukan juga sekadar mengingat kembali. Refleksi butuh analisa tentang pengalaman masa lalu, dan perencanaan tentang apa yang akan dilakukan di masa mendatang. Refleksi perlu dilakukan sendiri dengan melihat ke dalam, dan dilakukan bersama untuk berbagi pelajaran. Seseorang yang kompeten melakukan refleksi adalah individu yang memahami kelebihan yang menjadi kekuatannya dan menyadari keterbatasan yang perlu dikembangkannya.

Innovative Infrastructure Financing through Value Capture in Indonesia

Asian Development Bank, 2021-05-01 Indonesia needs significant additional infrastructure investment to sustain its economic growth. However, the COVID-19 pandemic has further limited the fiscal space of the government. This report proposes a new method to increase infrastructure investment based on the concept of value capture. The report studies how Indonesia's existing policies and regulations can be used to build a value capture framework that ensures the maximization of the social, economic, and environmental value of infrastructure investments. The framework focuses on strategies to deliver infrastructure projects that create greater value and, at the same time, generate funding for up-front investment.

Jangan Mau Seumur Hidup jadi Orang susah Valentino Dinsi, 2013-11-14 Kenapa orang hidup susah? Dan apa kesusahan itu? Sulit dimengerti bahwa tidak ada orang pun yang mau miskin yang menimbulkan hidup susah, akan tetapi, orang tak bisa menghindari susah meski sudah melakukan berbagai hal untuk terhindar dari kemiskinan, tetapi faktanya kemiskinan ini masih melanda sebagian besar manusia. Sebuah hasil penelitian mengungkap beberapa isu-isu pokok yang menjadi perhatian manusia dalam hidupnya tergambarkan di bawah ini: Keuangan = 25.77% Karier/kerja = 19.07% Kejelasan tujuan hidup = 15.46% Harga Diri = 13.92% Emosi = 10.31% Kesehatan = 5.67% Lain-lain = 6.70% Peran uang, uang, dan uang adalah isu paling utama yang mengemuka dalam problema kehidupan manusia sehari-hari. Uang adalah isu yang paling banyak mendapat perhatian manusia. Anda bekerja untuk mencari uang, meski bukan uang saja yang Anda cari. Anda berdagang untuk mencari uang, meski bukan uang saja yang Anda cari. Anda berkreasi untuk mencari uang, meski bukan uang saja yang Anda cari. Bahkan Anda bersekolah pun ujung-ujungnya untuk mencari uang, meski bukan uang saja yang harus Anda cari. Gampangnya ngomong, tanpa fulus dapat membuat langkah kita mamfus. Terkadang saya suka merenung sendirian. Jika uang itu menjadi perhatian utama, lalu mengapa kitab suci seperti Al-Qur'an tak pernah berbicara tentang teknik-teknik mengumpulkan uang. Kenapa Al-

Qur`an tak menjelaskan secara jelas tentang bagaimana menjadi orang kaya dengan memiliki banyak uang. Pertanyaan-pertanyaan semacam itu sedikit demi sedikit saya temukan jawabannya ketika saya membaca dan mendengar ayat-ayat yang memerintahkan bersedekah, berzakat, menolong orang lain, dan berjihad

Law, Informal Rules and Economic Performance Svetozar Pejovich, Enrico Colombatto, 2010-01-01 Almost everyone will gain something of value from reading this book. For those who work in the new institutional economics, Pejovich provides a thoughtful treatment of how common-law and civil-law systems affect personal freedoms and rule of law. The book s larger market, however, will comprise educated lay readers, who will gain a deeper appreciation of the foundations of capitalism in the developed world and of the dynamics of interrelated institutional and economic change. Lee J. Alston, The Independent Review . . . a well written, easily read book which casts light on many aspects of law and on questions which are or should be debated in our law schools. . . well laid out and presented. . . Its subject matter makes it essential reading for all those studying comparative law and of course law and economics and even for those studying legislation. It would be more than useful for those engaged in property law, the law of contract and administrative and public law. In other words it would be useful and challenging reading for just about all law teachers and students as well as practitioners who wish to think about the basics of what they are doing. Its easy combination of history, comparative technique, legal fundamentals and economics with no maths would even make it an excellent reader for LAWS 101. Bernard Robertson, New Zealand Law Journal Professor Pejovich has written an impressive lot on comparative economic systems, institutions, policies and broader social aspects of economic development. . . His long work in the field quite predictably made him able to present his views and findings in an ever clearer, more orderly and more profoundly argued way. . . This is one of the rare books in which the author is well aware of what he is talking about and makes sure that the same goes for his readers. Ljubomir Madzar Professor Pejovich has ranged expertly across such seemingly disparate areas as legal systems, culture, economics and public choice theory to give us a thoroughly convincing roadmap for a nation s economic success. The rule of law, enforcement of private contracts, private property rights and an independent judiciary are the basic building blocks. But the common law system, as compared to the civil law system emanating from the European continent, also gets a lot of the credit. This is an erudite, yet happily readable work that takes a lot of the mystery out of differential economic performance among nations. Henry G. Manne, George Mason University School of Law, US Written by one of the pioneers of modern property rights economics this book provides a most insightful, well readable and engaged discussion of the institutional foundations of the Western free enterprise system and the reason for its success, with a special emphasis on the differences between common law and civil law institutions. Readers will especially appreciate the many instructive examples and court cases that serve to illustrate the general argument. Viktor J. Vanberg, Universitaet Freiburg, Germany This is a must-read for anyone who wants to understand why Western capitalism has outperformed all other economic systems. Professor Pejovich explains how the institutions of capitalism, especially those based on common law, make for excellence, even in comparison with Western civil law countries. He presents a compelling theory of how systems evolve through the interactions of formal and informal institutions, an analysis that has deep significance for economic reform proposals throughout the world. John H. Moore, Grove City College, US There are many books on the virtues of capitalism and capitalism as a moral system. Steve Pejovich avoids that mistake. Capitalism, for him, is a system based on human behavior. It survives because it meets the needs that individuals face and provides opportunities that individuals are able to accept. Unlike the utopian visions that have competed against capitalism, it does not impose the vision of a

A grammar of Papuan Malay Angela Kluge,2016-07-08 This book presents an in-depth linguistic description of one Papuan Malay variety, based on sixteen hours of recordings of spontaneous narratives and conversations between Papuan Malay speakers. 'Papuan Malay' refers to the easternmost varieties of Malay (Austronesian). They are spoken in the coastal areas of West Papua, the western part of the island of New Guinea. The variety described here is spoken along West Papua's northeast coast. Papuan Malay is the language of wider communication and the first or second language for an ever-increasing number of people of the area. While Papuan Malay is not officially recognized and therefore not used in formal government or educational settings or for religious preaching, it is used in all other domains, including unofficial use in formal settings, and, to some extent, in the public media. After a general introduction to the language, its setting, and history, this grammar discusses the following topics, building up from smaller grammatical constituents to larger ones: phonology, word formation, noun and prepositional phrases, verbal and nonverbal clauses, non-declarative clauses, and conjunctions and constituent combining. Of special interest to linguists, typologists, and Malay specialists are the following in-depth analyses and descriptions: affixation and its productivity across domains of language choice, reduplication and its gesamtbedeutung, personal pronouns and their adnominal uses, demonstratives and locatives and their extended uses, and adnominal possessive relations and their non- canonical uses. This study provides a point of comparison for further studies in other (Papuan) Malay varieties and a starting point for Papuan Malay language development efforts.

Literacy in the Arts Georgina Barton, 2014-04-01 This book explores the many dialogues that exist between the arts and literacy. It shows how the arts are inherently multimodal and therefore interface regularly with literate practice in learning and teaching contexts. It asks the questions: What does literacy look like in the arts? And what does it mean to be arts literate? It explores what is important to know and do in the arts and also what literacies are engaged in, through the journey to becoming an artist. The arts for the purpose of this volume include five art forms: Dance, Drama, Media Arts, Music and Visual Arts. The book provides a more productive exploration of the arts-literacy relationship. It acknowledges that both the arts and literacy are open-textured concepts and notes how they accommodate each other, learn about, and from each other and can potentially make education 'better'. It is when the two stretch each other that we see an educationally productive dialogic relationship emerge.
