The Unavoidable Addenda J. Bidula, Courtney Jenkins, 2018-07-23 So, here's the problem... You start writing this really cool book series and people start to like it. You put out a sequel, like, a year after you release the original and people really like that, too. Then, another year goes by and your burgeoning fan base is like: Where is the rest of this story, dude? Got any more? And you're like: No... like, soon, maybe? And, every time they see you, your fans roll their eyes and they keep coming back to say hi and you keep giving them the same answer and they're pretty much like: WTF, GRRM? What are you doing to us? Finally you start having ideas again, but none of them fit the overall narrative. Not really helpful when you are going for a book three. What's an author to do? They satisfy their fan base's rabid and insatiable appetite by cramming all of these ideas into a collection of short stories and pretending that most of them were never posted for free on the internet. No, it's not book three, but it is canonical fun times with your favorite cast of superhero slackers doing what they do best and breaking down all of the pop-culture tropes with the twin hammers of cynicism and snark. The Unavoidable Addenda is a series of Uni7erse Shorts (clever, right?) that take place between The Obligatory Sequel to the first Unlucky Seven novel and the forthcoming book three and addresses some of the darker aspects of the Uni7erse (it's cool, see!) at large as well as what happens in the times between large scale adventures. It also includes FIVE never before seen brand new shorts including one by contributing author Courtney Jenkins. Smaller scale stories, same big laughs you're used to, totally not a cop out by the author!

The Joy of Small Things Hannah Jane Parkinson, 2021-10-05 'This book is a not-so-small joy in itself.' NIGELLA LAWSON 'Parkinson has the gift of making you look with new eyes at everyday things. The perfect daily diversion.' JOJO MOYES 'Always funny and frank and full of insight, I absolutely love Parkinson's writing.' DAVID NICHOLLS 'I loved this book . . . Parkinson's writing transports you to unexpected places of joy and comfort . . . these pages contain happiness.' MARINA HYDE 'The twenty-first century feels a lot more bearable in Parkinson's company.' CHARLOTTE MENDELSON Drawn from the successful Guardian column, these everyday exultations and inspirations will get you through dismal days. Hannah Jane Parkinson is a specialist in savouring the small pleasures of life. She revels in her fluffy dressing gown ('like bathing in marshmallow'), finds calm in solo cinema trips, is charmed by the personalities of fonts ('you'll never see Comic Sans on a funeral notice'), celebrates pockets and gleefully abandons a book she isn't enjoying. Parkinson's everyday exaltations - selected from her immensely successful Guardian column - will utterly delight.

FEATURES BRAND NEW MATERIAL 'A compendium of delights.' OBSERVER 'Delightful . . . a love letter to those little moments of bliss that get us through the daily grind.' RED

The Guy on the Left James Duthie, 2015-10-13 If you're a sports fan, you know James Duthie. The biggest games, the biggest trades, the juiciest rumours—chances are Duthie is the guy you tuned in to hear talk about them. There are other experts and insiders, stats guys and analysts, but no one else who can talk about sports with the humour, the knowledge, and the charisma Duthie brings to every event he covers. He also makes the best spoof videos. The Guy on the Left tells the story of Duthie's career in broadcasting, from a nerdy appearance on a game show to chatting with Tiger Woods in the men's room at The Masters. It's a behind-the-scenes look at celebrated moments like Sidney Crosby's famous game-winning goal at the Vancouver Olympics, but also less celebrated insights, like the disclosure that sports broadcasters often aren't wearing pants on air. There are stories about goofing around with NHL superstars like Roberto Luongo and Anze Kopitar. There are also stories about wandering into the wrong house after walking his dog and surprising his neighbour in her underwear. His stories can also be serious. Tragedy strikes more than once in the sports world. Most notably, he had to go to air on the evening of September 11, 2001. His reflections on the way sport is part of all of our lives, from the athletes and sports figures on the planes to the kids who lost coaches and parents, are a powerful reminder of both the importance of sport and how lucky we all are to be part of it. Funny, thoughtful, self-deprecating, and wry, The Guy on the Left is everything fans love about James Duthie.

A retelling of the Christmas Story in a way you've never heard it before. . . . The fable of a donkey who carries a mother and child safely to Egypt. . . . Don't Depend on God Janice Tarbox, 2007-02 DON'T DEPEND ON GOD Janice Tarbox I've written hundreds of short stories. But then - I didn't start until I was sixty. I wrote one poem. This is that poem. What Have I To Give To You? Bouquets of stars to spread on your bed Sabers of moonbeams crossed over your head Prisms of silhouettes to dance into view Oceans of laughter is your due Warmness and softness wherever you roam A home full of peace high up on the dome Spoons, cups and bowls of overflowing joy Genuineness and thoroughness wound up in a coil I am your master your servant your friend Bursting with bubbles to make amends Barrels of nothingness to fill with Eureka's Sunsets of colors unable to speak of Silence so strong ghosts hear your songs Hangers of king's robes that you may put on Mountains and valleys of sweet perfumed flowers Truckloads of riches to claim as your dower As like whales living deep down in the sea With immeasurable freedom you are to be Strings and ribbons of family and friends Wisdom beyond every monk and amen Come here, come here take all that I've said I've a huge reservoir just waiting to spread Before that year of sixty, my husband and I were foster parents for ten years. I had a real knack for making babies happy. But then - I was very sad inside my head. After having written hundreds of short stories, and one poem, I decided to write some lyrics to a favorite melody of mine - Ashokan Farewell by Jay Ungar. It was composed for the PBS miniseries The Civil War. I am love come stay with me Here it's warm and soft and cool I'm a stone I'm a tree The sun is my strength It is light and living free Take the step along my path The breath of a bee The moon is my beauty You won't miss what's out there We'll laugh and we'll sing and A hill and a cloud And now and forever For others to be. We'll be everything. Come fly with me. I am that I am. What started my writing short stories was a quote from Joel S. Goldsmith, from his book titled Consciousness Is What I Am. Nothing can come into our experience except through our consciousness, so what our life will be depends on what we entertain in consciousness.
