Riding the Storm Out, 2006 9 year old author McKenna Andrews, has written & published an amazing tale inspired by the true story of captive dolphins swept from their Oceanarium in Gulfport, Mississippi and out to sea by Hurricane Katrina. This book puts a fictional twist on what it might have been like to be a captive dolphin in the open sea and the adventures and experiences these dolphins may have had while in this unknown world, such as; creatures that they encounter and wild dolphins that befriend them and take them under their wings until they can be rescued. But when the storm hits and Delaney's dad gets stranded in open water, it's Abby and her dolphin friends to the rescue!

Dolphin Diaries Dr. Denise L. Herzing, 2011-07-05 Dr. Denise Herzing began her research with a pod of spotted dolphins in the 1980s. Now, almost three decades later, she has forged strong ties with many of these individuals, has witnessed and recorded them feeding, playing, fighting, mating, giving birth and communicating. Dolphin Diaries is an account of Herzing's research and her surprising findings on wild dolphin behavior, interaction, and communication. Readers will be drawn into the highs and lows—the births and deaths, the discovery of unique and personalized behaviors, the threats dolphins face from environmental changes, and the many funny and wonderful encounters Denise painstakingly documented over many years. This is the perfect book for anyone who loves these incredibly versatile and intelligent creatures and wants to find out more than the dolphin show at the zoo can offer. Herzing is a true pioneer in her field and deserves a place in the pantheon of naturalists and scientists next to Dian Fossey and Jane Goodall.

One of more than 840,000 “boat people” to have fled the war ravaged country, the author describes his family’s epic journey and the historical, cultural, social, economic, and political problems that led to his father’s decision to take his family away from their homeland. The Storm from Hell Enock Lynn Norrbom, 2011-10 Jerry noticed that he was not in a mental fog any longer. In fact, it was like he had not taken a drink at all. The reality of all of this had sobered him up. There seemed to be a lot of noise coming from about two hundred yards away by some rocks. Jerry started to move in the direction of the rocks. There were a lot of lights and people around the edge of the rocks, and as Jerry got closer, he still could not see everything, but he could hear some whistling or high-pitched screaming. Jerry didn't understand until he got much closer and could see three or four dolphins caught in a small pool of water--too small, in fact, for them to survive, and the people around were talking and pointing their flashlights at them. Once Jerry reached them, he asked, Does anyone know just what has caused the water to recede? Just then an older man answered, Well, I don't know for sure, but the news says that the entire west coast is just like this, and no one seems to know why.
