How I Took Hollywood by Storm Boyce House, 1942

The Imperfect Storm: From Henry Street to Hollywood Howard Storm, Steve Stoliar, THE IMPERFECT STORM: From Henry Street To Hollywood is the improbable – and vastly entertaining – story of Howard Storm (nee Howard Sobel), who grew up on the mean streets of New York's Lower East Side during the Great Depression and went on to become a successful standup comic, actor, improv teacher, and television director. In the world of entertainment, Howard's hilarious storytelling prowess is legendary. After years of friends demanding he set these stories down in book form, he finally did it, with the help of author Steve Stoliar (RAISED EYEBROWS: My Years Inside Groucho's House). THE IMPERFECT STORM is filled with funny, shocking, sometimes bittersweet stories about playing rough-and-tumble mob-owned clubs in the '50s, graduating to big-time clubs in the '60s, directing such classic TV shows as RHODA, LAVERNE & SHIRLEY, MORK & MINDY, TAXI and EVERYBODY LOVES RAYMOND, and much, much more. Along the way, there are previously unpublished photos and never-before-told stories about such immortals as Judy Garland, Cary Grant, Frank Sinatra, Lucille Ball, Desi Arnaz, Woody Allen, Lenny Bruce, Valerie Harper, Joan Rivers, Don Rickles, Jonathan Winters, and Robin Williams, just to shave the tip off the iceberg. A remarkable tale, from start to finish. "A terrific book. Great show-business stories, celebrities, gangsters, prizefighters – all fresh tales, hilariously told by a guy who really knows how to tell them." — Woody Allen "What a humorously entertaining and immersing autobiography!!! It makes one feel they're on an extended car-trip with a favorite uncle through the glory days of show-biz; from vaudeville to the Catskills to Broadway to Hollywood sit-coms. (And had I known Howard was so 'connected,' I would have gotten to work on time!) This amazing trip through time is certainly worth the ride." — Pam Dawber "One of the most life-affirming reads ever. Howard Storm is an American Master." — Richard Lewis

Weathering the Storm Xavier Watson & Tara M. Watson, SFC, A, 2008-10-27 This book is a journey through life changing events. It all began on August 29, 2005, the day that changed my family's life forever. Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans and all the surrounding areas, but the damage was due to the levee breach 4 1/2 miles away from my family's home. The journey takes us from New Orleans to Mississippi and now presiding in Decatur, Georgia. The blessing was being employed by the military. With my 18 years of service, and as a Non-Commissioned Officer I have influenced my children to reach for their dream. A leader must Be Know and Do to survive and with that inspiration I have instilled in my children to become the best person they can by working hard and studying their interests for the future. Xavier is an example of what an actor must Be Know and Do. Since moving to Decatur, Georgia he has shown interest in being an actor and quickly took it to another level. We will take you through the audition process, booking the first gig and starring in his first Nickelodeon (GOGURT) commercial sponsored by the Kids Choice Awards and also booking the video of Our Future is Green, featuring Mayor Shirley Franklin. During the process Xavier has learned that before you can have a chance at fame and fortune, you must pursue all aspects of getting a job as an actor. And to get that you must have talent and be determined to perform your best for the people that can give you a job. My guide through, Weathering the Storm: A Young Actor's Journey to Hollywood will give you, the young and talented out there the encouragement to go forth with your career.

Hollywood on Trial Michael Freedland, 2007-05-30 'The irony was that at this time the Communist Party was legal. People were sent to prison for refusing to say if they were communists.' -- Sidney Sheldon It was, in effect, a huge smoke-filled California courtroom, noisy to the point where even the sound of the gavel from the raised desk could barely be heard. It was an unusual courtroom and a very unusual 'defendant'. In the dock was Hollywood itself – placed on trial by the US Congress and, in the summer of 1953, finally coming close to succumbing to a death sentence, a sentence of shame. The UnAmerican Activities Committee finally decided that it had done its job: it had looked for reds under the bed in the film capital and said it had found them. Hollywood was now pronounced 'clean', yet it had never been dirtier. This is the true story of how J. Parnell Thomas, chairman of the Committee (the House of Representatives version of Senator Joseph McCarthy's witchhunts) made a national name for himself by ruining the lives of hundreds of people in the movie industry. Two years later, Thomas would be jailed for embezzling government money but in August 1953 he was riding high. 'Hollywood on Trial' relates the story of the victims of this witchhunt. Through the Committee many of Hollywood's leading lights were denied the right to work. Stars such as Charlie Chaplin and Paul Robeson were denied the passports that would have allowed them to leave America, Oscar-winning writers were forced to give their scripts to noneities to offer in their own names and then shared the proceeds. Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Danny Kaye and John Huston went to Washington in defence of the 'Hollywood Ten', the first writers to be blacklisted, yet when Bogart and Bacall were questioned, they too buckled in. The humiliations continued until the end of the Fifties. The scars, however, have remained to this day.
