My Personal Jewelry Journal Vesna Williams, 2021-07-22 The essential record of your personal jewelry collection. Nine jewelry categories come with useful key terms reference pages that contain a wealth of choice information to remind you about design styles, metals, gemstones and jewelry history. The logbook tables that follow are designed to fill-in useful details such as name, brand, style, metal content, karats, gemstones, value, etc. of each piece of jewelry you want to remember, cherish and preserve. Evaluating what you own, after you've sorted and organized your jewelry also means deciding what you plan to do with it. Each table allows you to fill-in a task per piece of jewelry: to keep, recycle, repair, up-cycle, gift or sell. Finally, a date slot keeps you on track for completion or follow-up decisions going forward.

"A master class on how to arrange even your most unattractive belongings—and spaces—in an aesthetically pleasing and easy-to-navigate way."—Glamour (10 Books to Help You Live Your Best Life) Believe this: every single space in your house has the potential to function efficiently and look great. The mishmash of summer and winter clothes in the closet? Yep. Even the dreaded junk drawer? Consider it done. And the best news: it's not hard to do—in fact, it's a lot of fun. From the home organizers who made their orderly eye candy the method that everyone swears by comes Joanna and Clea's signature approach to decluttering. The Home Edit walks you through paring down your belongings in every room, arranging them in a stunning and easy-to-find way (hello, labels!), and maintaining the system so you don't need another do-over in six months. When you're done, you'll not only know exactly where to find things, but you'll also love the way it looks. A masterclass and look book in one, The Home Edit is filled with bright photographs and detailed tips, from placing plastic dishware in a drawer where little hands can reach to categorizing pantry items by color (there's nothing like a little ROYGBIV to soothe the soul). Above all, it's like having your best friends at your side to help you turn the chaos into calm. Includes a link to download and print the labels from a computer (you will need 8-1/2 x 11-inch clear repositionable sticker project paper, such as Avery 4397).
