Dying for Life Saibal Guha,2023-01-09 The storyline in this book follows the protagonist, Sam, a Psychiatrist practicing in Brisbane, living with his partner, through his recurrent dreams and visions, which relate to missing a chunk of his childhood. As he tries to unpack his lost youth with the help of his family and friends, it slowly becomes clear to Sam his childhood was psychologically dissected for a reason, which soon becomes his singular mission. His lost childhood is gradually unpacked through experimental narcoanalysis and frequent dissociative episodes. As the story progresses, Sam returns to his roots to find answers. Little does he know he is a mere pawn in a much bigger game involving politics, money, greed, and lust. As he also discovers more about the source of his index trauma, his life is suddenly tossed around in the stormy sea of guilt, paranormal experiences, threats of death and dying, and glimpses of hope and salvation. Gender-2 Suresh Mohan Prasad,2020-10-20 Hi, I am Ranjan, from a remote village in Bihar. Parting gift of Lalita was the beginning of my interest in the second gender. The interest became an obsession which continued. Gender-2 is a gripping tale involving women including young girls, class mates, coworkers, and achievers from the other sex. The best feeling in the world is being in the company of pretty women. It is not a love story rather a story of strong platonic feelings, appreciation and acknowledgement of grace, intelligence and pride of the female gender. Women are the most beautiful creation of God. I still remember times and moments spent in the company of Lalita and Sumita during my college days. Praneet ma'am was a senior colleague. She encouraged me, impressed me and also liked me. I enjoyed my interaction with Saloni and Ankita. I also vividly remember coworkers, Radhika, Parvathy and Padmapriya; my dear scholars, Trisha and Aditiaparna; achievers, Alpana ma'am, Supriya, Vidya, Ruchi and Nandita and my soul mate, Sindhu who made every moment of my life exciting, enjoyable and gratifying. The purpose of life is to live it, enjoy it and taste newer and richer experiences.

The Infinite Ramesh Pokhriyal 'Nishank',2021-10-10 Our life is speckled with the anecdotes and their narrative tales and one does not have to traverse too far and wide to stumble upon them. A connoisseur can identify them with an insightful profundity and a perceptively sensitive observance. The compositions of stories compiled in The Infinite are testimony to this. Ramesh Pokhriyal 'Nishank' has accentuated his truthful observations in his stories standing on the turbulent surface of life. It is worth noticing that numerous stories of 'Nishank' are the narrative sagas of the marginalised people. 'Nishank' has collected story threads from poverty, commodification of relationships, subject matters pertaining to women, and the ironical circumstances engulfing human life etc. While working on the warp and the woof of his narrative sources, he captures the attention of his readers and does not deviate them from the labyrinth of his imagination. His narratives speak volumes in simple language filled with simplicity. The stories of The Infinite are testimony to the joys and sorrows of life.

Venus with a P*nis - A Tale of Love, Sacrifice and Betrayal Almas Hussain, 2019-06-17 Meet Rajan, the irresponsible younger son in a family of doctors. He's reckless. He's rebellious. And he's dressing up like a woman these days. No. He's not a cross-dresser. Nor is he transgender. He thinks he's a murderer. It all begins with a mother-to-be dying on the young gynaecologist's watch. And to atone for her death, he banishes himself to the boondocks. He arrives at the remote village of Kaatgram, where pregnant women have been dying left, right and centre. But the Kaatgrami men are not about to send their women to a male gynaecologist. So Rajan does the next best thing—he disguises himself as a lady doctor. Rajan feels it is okay to deceive the people about his gender, so long as he gets to save their lives. Damini, the local MLA's daughter, supports him in his dream of setting up a maternity clinic in their village. Rajan falls for her. But she doesn't even know he's a man. Will Rajan manage to woo his sweetheart and marry her? Or will the villagers tear him to pieces when they find out that their lady doctor is actually a man?

Democratic Science Teaching: Building the Expertise to Empower Low-Income Minority Youth in Science Sreyashi Jhumki Basu, Angela Calabrese Barton, Edna Tan, 2011-11-12 Democratic science pedagogy has the potential to shape learning outcomes and science engagement by taking on directly issues of pedagogy, learning, and social justice. In this text we provide a framework for democratic science teaching in order to interrogate the purposes and goals of science education in classrooms globally, as well as to call attention to ways of being in the classroom that position teachers and students as important and powerful participants in their own learning and as change-agents of a larger global society. We develop three core conceptual tools for democratic science teaching, that together frame ways of thinking and being in classrooms that work towards a more just world: Voice, Authority, and Critical Science Literacy. Each conceptual tool is developed in the introductory chapters then taken up in different pedagogical and analytic ways in the chapters that span the text. The chapters present researcher, teacher, and student centered lenses for investigating democratic science education and reflect elementary through high school education, both in school and out of school, in the US and globally.
