The Girl Who Reads Her Past Six Lives Poojitha Reddy Gosula,2021-09-27 Who doesn't want to be in love? Who doesn't want to be loved? Who doesn't want to meet one's love? Age, time, gender, race, place, period, money, challenges, curse, backstabs and sacrifices don't even count when two are in love selflessly. Couples can read together, singles can read alone, children can read during playtime, middle and old-aged can read in their leisure time, novel-lovers can read day in and out because this book is an amalgamation of sensitivity of flowers and power of the swords. She is the Army-Chief is the first part of the seven-series book, The Girl Who Reads her Past Six Lives written by Poojitha Reddy Gosula. It is periodic fantasy fiction. In several fictional and fantastical worlds of the story, you will meet relatable characters living a surreal lifestyle, yet you will feel the reality of our planet. This book is for all age groups and genders across the globe. The culture in the book could be different to many but the emotions are universal. Curse and love are universal. "Some dreams can be more than just behind the closed eyes in the nights. I have many such. A series of such dreams and my creativity are added to this story." --Poojitha Reddy Gosula.

Indian Antiquary ,1906 At a time when each Society had its own medium of propogation of its researches ... in the form of Transactions, Proceedings, Journals, etc., a need was strongly felt for bringing out a journal devoted exclusively to the study and advancement of Indian culture in all its aspects. [This] encouraged Jas Burgess to launch the 'Indian antiquary' in 1872. The scope ... was in his own words 'as wide as possible' incorporating manners and customs, arts, mythology, feasts, festivals and rites, antiquities and the history of India ... Another laudable aim was to present the readers abstracts of the most recent researches of scholars in India and the West ... 'Indian antiquary' also dealt with local legends, folklore, proverbs, etc. In short 'Indian antiquary' was ...entirely devoted to the study of MAN - the Indian - in all spheres ... -- introduction to facsimile volumes, published 1985.
