Multivariate Analysis to Get an Estimate of the Indian Stock Market Nifty Index Rajveer Rawlin,2011-11 Research Paper (postgraduate) from the year 2011 in the subject Business economics – Banking, Stock Exchanges, Insurance, Accounting, grade: 1, language: English, abstract: The Indian stock market S and P CNX Nifty Index (Nifty) is a well diversified index of 50 companies. Foreign Institutional Investors (FII's), wield significant influence over daily trading volumes in both the spot and derivative segments in the Indian markets. This tends to impact market volatility and returns. This study attempted to study the effect of FII transaction amounts, derivative turn over amounts and volatility on the performance of the Nifty index. A strong correlation was observed between derivative turnover and the Nifty but the correlation was relatively weaker between the Nifty and FII transaction amounts and Volatility. FII and F&O activity established important tops ahead of major tops in the Nifty. Volatility remained low during periods of significant upside in the stock market but spiked up during market declines. Linear and Non-linear models using multivariate analysis were fit to estimate the Nifty from the respective independent variables. A non linear model involving all three variables provided the best fit and the least deviation from actual values suggesting that interplay of these and other factors drive the performance of the index. Keywords: Nifty, FII transaction amounts, F&O turnover, Volatility, Nifty forecasting, Linear and Non Linear Models.

Peddanna, Generally, the fund managers prefer to include Nifty-listed securities in their portfolio, because they are the leading stocks of the nation, using these companies constructed 11 sectors of stock indices. On the whole, the analysis of 12-year data starting from April 2002 to March 2014 established two phases of sectoral indices of Nifty; they are pre and post-recession periods in the light of sub-prime financial crisis that cropped up across the globe during 2008-09. 183 Days Of Post-Mortem On Bank Nifty Balachandran Viswaram,2023-04-07 In-depth technical analysis done on bank nifty index & option trading strategies used in the last 183 trading days. Published from 4th of July to 29th of March 2023. My attempt is to logically reason why & how something happened in the day. An explanation in simple language & depicted via markers on charts, candle sticks, etc. I am also careful enough not to expose my directional bias that may otherwise lure traders into positional trades. Options trading has a high probability of running into losses if we lose focus. So the strategies are explained after the day has ended for educational purposes. This book is a collection of 183 days of trades that happened between 4th July 2023 to 29th March 2023. On 2 or 3 days in September, I was unable to create the journal as I was not in the city. For the rest of the days I have spent close to 30 to 40mts per day in creating & publishing the report. So approximately 120+ hours have been spent in creating the analysis & report in addition to the 6 to 7 hours spent daily in reading the charts.

Forecasting India's NIFTY IT Index Rajveer Rawlin,Dhanya ML,2021-10-27 Master's Thesis from the year 2021 in the subject Business economics - Banking, Stock Exchanges, Insurance, Accounting, grade: 1, , language: English, abstract: The purpose of this research is to forecast the following day's closing price for a specific share of a company in the stock market using the Hidden Markov Model. In this paper, the Hidden Markov Model is used to predict some of the stocks of interconnected airline markets. The researchers have developed the Hidden Markov Model for forecasting time series. As a result of its ability to model dynamic systems, this model is widely used for the recognition of model and problem classifications. In this article, the researchers examined trends in the historical data set. They inserted the appropriate neighboring prices to the datasets and predicted the next day's exchange. Data collection was secondary. The secondary market was collected from Southwest Airlines for 1.5 years (approximately) from September 17, 2002, to December 16, 2004. The observations of the input data are continuous rather than discrete. The sample size is 4 airline firms (British Airlines, Delta Airlines, Southwest Airlines, and Ryanair Holdings Ltd.) The NIFTY IT index captures the performance of the Indian Information Technology (IT) companies. The NIFTY IT index consists of 10 companies listed on the National Stock Exchange (NSE). The IT sector in India has been recording tremendous growth over the years, where it accounts for a growth rate of 7.5 percent per annum. Time series analysis is a statistical tool that can be used in forecasting the prices of financial assets. In the current study, the NIFTY IT index was forecasted from past data collected over a 10 year period spanning from 2011 to 2020. An ARIMA model is fit and used to forecast the NIFTY IT index. Forecasted values were different from actual prices, suggesting that more influencing independent variables must be include, to improve the model accuracy.
