La Tormenta Vera Colon,2018-05-13 As the unprecedented category 5 storm, Hurricane Isaac, barrels across towards the Sunshine State, storm clouds of another kind roil beneath the roof of the Tenorio home. Philandering husband, Vicente Tenorio, surprises his wife by arriving home with his mistress and their children in tow to ride out the dangerous storm. Mariangela Tenorio knew about the affair, of course, but looked the other way like a good wife. Her mother insists it's her penance for getting knocked up and married instead of finishing high school but residing under the same roof as the other woman? If puerca de Juan Bobo is still alive at the end of their 72 hours together, Mari will write the Vatican personally to demand sainthood! Alexis Tenorio knows about the affair as well. Hell, the blind, deaf and dead would know about it with all the yelling and tears in that house and the youngest daughter can't move out fast enough! But the teen is full of her own secrets with no one to confide in. Retiring freelance photographer and eldest brother, Efraim Tenorio, also has a secret or two he hasn't divulged to the family but the powder keg atmosphere of the household may finally make him crack. The entire situation is news to Dr. Sandra Tenorio, accomplished but still single NY doctor who discovers while visiting for Abuela's 85th birthday that she's been drummed out of the family as penalty for focusing on her career and wonders what happened to the loving, close-knit family she grew up with. When Isaac finally dies down, will the devastation be worst inside the house or outside?

Cultural Heritage and the Future Cornelius Holtorf, Anders Högberg, 2020-12-10 Cultural Heritage and the Future brings together an international group of scholars and experts to consider the relationship between cultural heritage and the future. Drawing on case studies from around the world, the contributing authors insist that cultural heritage and the future are intimately linked and that the development of futures thinking should be a priority for academics, students and those working in the wider professional heritage sector. Until recently, the future has never attracted substantial research and debate within heritage studies and heritage management, and this book addresses this gap by offering a balance of theoretical and empirical content that will stimulate multidisciplinary debate in the burgeoning field of critical heritage studies. Cultural Heritage and the Future questions the role of heritage in future making and will be of great relevance to academics and students working in the fields of museum and heritage studies, archaeology, anthropology, architecture, conservation studies, sociology, history and geography. Those working in the heritage professions will also find much to interest them within the pages of this book.

Out There Sarah Stark, 2014 Jefferson Long Soldier, a young Army veteran of Native descent, returns home safely from Iraq and is convinced that the novel he carried with him over the ocean and across the desert (One Hundred Years of Solitude by Gabriel García Márquez) saved his life. Reuniting with his family after almost four years away, Jefferson attempts to reclaim his peaceful life in Santa Fe, New Mexico. But when heart-breaking memories of war will not be quelled, Jefferson travels south across the border to Mexico on a borrowed motorcycle to find his hero, the great writer behind the magic of the life-saving classic novel.
