Dictionary of Louisiana French Albert Valdman,Kevin James Rottet,2010 The Dictionary of Louisiana French (DLF) provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present. This dictionary describes the current usage of French-speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana: the coastal marshes, the banks of the Mississippi River, the central area, the north, and the western prairie. Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty-four areas in these regions. In addition to the data collected from fieldwork, the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories, from texts published after 1930, and from archival recordings. The new authoritative resource, the DLF not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry. Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling, the pronunciation (including attested variants), the part of speech classification, the English equivalent, and the word's use in common phrases. The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled. An English-to-Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in la Louisiane .

Peau morte Manon Leresche,2015-10-27 Une jeune fille seule face à trois hommes et une vie qui bascule Je n’avais que seize ans lorsque j’ai compris que ma vie n’allait plus en être une. Je titubais dans les copeaux m’en allant chercher de quoi remplir mon estomac. J’étais affamée, c’est souvent comme ça après les soirées. Enfin bref, la fête touchait à sa fin, le jour pointait et l’alcool me donnait la gerbe plus que jamais. A peine plus tard, je ne saurais dire quand ni comment exactement, mais je me retrouvai au fond d’un long tunnel, immensément grand, infiniment noir. Trois hommes étaient là, en face de moi. Deux d’entre eux me tenaient ferme les épaules tandis que le dernier rouait mon corps de coups. Il s’en prit d’abord à mes seins en les tirant, les pressant, les saignant. Puis, il s’acharna contre mon ventre dans lequel parut alors la marque de son poing. Ensuite, ce fut très lentement, ou rapidement je ne me souviens plus vraiment, mais il arracha les boutons de mon pantalon comme si son désir sexuel, ou devrais-je dire plutôt, son besoin vital d’assoupir sa queue, le rendait complètement fou, hystérique, c’était un véritable chien ! Un récit poignant de courage et de sincérité EXTRAIT Après avoir ressassé la scène du viol à maintes reprises aux policiers, je rentrai à la maison accompagnée de mes parents ainsi que de mon frère, s’effaçant à petit feu comme le dernier souffle d’une flamme qui meurt sans crier au drame. Ma sœur, elle, s’en était allée un peu plus tôt dans l’après-midi. Elle s’était sans doute réfugiée à l’abri des regards pour que ceux-ci ne puissent pas lire les larmes noyant son magnifique visage. Ils étaient comme ça, mes parents, mon frère, ma sœur. Ils étaient forts mais fragiles à la fois. Ils étaient sensibles mais pudiques en même temps. Bref, nous étions ensemble mais tellement seuls pourtant. C’est à partir de cet instant que je compris que tout allait prendre un autre tournant, un autre sens, une tout autre suite. CE QU’EN PENSE LA CRITIQUE - « Un livre percutant et annonciateur d’un beau talent. » - Patrick Baumann, L’illustré - « La renaissance d’une femme et la naissance d’une écrivaine. » - L’Hebdo A PROPOS DE L’AUTEUR A 16 ans, Manon Leresche a été victime d’un viol lors d’une fête vaudoise de jeunesse. De son calvaire et des mois traumatisants qui ont suivi, elle a fait un livre poignant. L'unité de Peau morte est constituée d'une suite de fragments. Ces fragments comportent parfois des redites, qui sont les ingrédients psychanalytiques nécessaires à la reconstruction de l'auteure.

La Peau morte Caroline Dumas de Raully,2018-10-02 Peau morte. Julien, parti faire ses études, rentre une journée au village natal. Les vieilles personnes vieillissent. Les jeunes se prélassent sur la roche noire surplombant la rivière. Tout semble immobile sous le soleil qui chauffe, mais l'équilibre est précaire : rien n'a changé, Julien, c'est toi qui a changé. La Rivière Qu'y a-t-il de l'autre côté de la rivière ? Karen, Alice et le Joueur de flûte s'y aventurent, mais la rivière résiste dangereusement. Leurs trois destins s'entremêlent en trois courtes pièces, libres réécritures des Souliers rouges d'Andersen, d'Alice au pays des merveilles de Lewis Carroll et du Joueur de Flûte de Hamelin des frères Grimm.

Réécriture Des Mythes Joëlle Cauville,1997 Définir de façon univalente la notion de mythe et celle d'utopie semble en soi une entreprise tout à fait utopique. Par ailleurs, jumeler les deux notions, celle du mythe et celle d'utopie, relève d'un processus de réflexion qui peut facilement être à double tranchant: le mythe, construction par excellence de l'imaginaire humain, ne se situe-t-il pas ailleurs que dans un non-lieu? et l'utopie, quant à elle, ne fait-elle pas écho au mythe, à la fois s'en inspirant, le niant et le transformant? Redondance possible, et aussi, parfois, refus des deux domaines à admettre leur interdépendance, cheminement parallèle surtout et création commune de ce qui, en fin de compte, s'avère mythe transformé, utopie revêtue. Toutefois, mythes et utopies quels que soient la position choisie, le point de vue défendu, semblent faire bon ménage, à en juger par ce projet, avec dix-neuf textes couvrant principalement la littérature contemporaine des femmes, mais puisant parfois aux œuvres antérieures qui ont déjà préparé le terrain, en offrant des visions d'existences idylliques ne serait-ce que littéraires.

Unreconciled Michel Houellebecq,2017-09-05 Selected poems from the critically acclaimed author of Submission and The Elementary Particles A shimmering selection of poems chosen from four collections of one of France’s most exciting authors, Unreconciled shines a fresh light on Michel Houellebecq and reveals the radical singularity of his work. Drawing on themes that are similar to the ones in his novels, these poems are a journey into the depths of individual experience and universal passions. Divided into five parts, Unreconciled forms a narrative of love, hopelessness, catastrophe, dedication, and—ultimately—redemption. In a world of supermarkets and public transportation, indifferent landscapes and lonely nights, Houellebecq manages to find traces of divine grace even as he exposes our inexorable decline into chaos. Told through forms and rhythms that are both ancient and new, with language steeped in the everyday, Unreconciled stands in the tradition of Baudelaire while making a bold new claim on contemporary verse. It reveals that in addition to his work as an incisive novelist, Houellebecq is one of our most perceptive poets with a vision of our era that brims with tensions that cannot—and will not—be reconciled.

The Colonial Fortune in Contemporary Fiction in French Oana Panaïté,2017-05-11 This book explores the 'colonial fortune' in light of contemporary concerns with issues of fate, economics, legacy, and debt and the persistence of the colonial in today’s political and cultural conversation.

Sociocultural Aspects of Translating and Interpreting Anthony Pym,Miriam Shlesinger,Zuzana Jettmarova,2006-01-01 Translation Studies has recently been searching for connections with Cultural Studies and Sociology. This volume brings together a range of ways in which the disciplines can be related, particularly with respect to research methodologies. The key aspects covered are the agents behind translation, the social histories revealed by translations, the perceived roles and values of translators in social contexts, the hidden power relations structuring publication contexts, and the need to review basic concepts of the way social and cultural systems work. Special importance is placed on Community Interpreting as a field of social complexity, the lessons of which can be applied in many other areas. The volume studies translators and interpreters working in a wide range of contexts, ranging from censorship in East Germany to English translations in Gujarat. Major contributions are made by Agnès Whitfield, Daniel Gagnon, Franz Pöhhacker, Michaela Wolf, Pekka Kujamäki and Rita Kothari, with an extensive introduction on methodology by Anthony Pym.

Culture and Identity in Belgian Francophone Writing Susan Bainbrigge,2009 Few full-length studies exist in English on French-speaking authors from Belgium. What, if any, are the particular features of francophone Belgian writing? This book explores questions of cultural and literary identity, and offers an overview of currents in critical debate regarding the place of francophone Belgian writing and its relationship to its larger neighbour, but also engages with broader questions concerning the classification of 'francophone' literature. The study brings together well-known and less well-known modern and contemporary writers (Suzanne Lilar, Neel Doff, Dominique Rolin, Jacqueline Harpman, Françoise Mallet-Joris, Jean Muno, Nicole Malinconi, and Amélie Nothomb) whose works share a number of recurring themes and features, notably a preoccupation with questions of identity and alterity. Overall, the study highlights the diverse ways in which these questions of cultural identity and alterity emerge as a dominant theme throughout the corpus, viewed through a series of literary and cultural frameworks which bring together perspectives both local and global.

Concentrationary Art Griselda Pollock,Max Silverman,2019-04-22 Largely forgotten over the years, the seminal work of French poet, novelist and camp survivor Jean Cayrol has experienced a revival in the French-speaking world since his death in 2005. His concept of a concentrationary art—the need for an urgent and constant aesthetic resistance to the continuing effects of the concentrationary universe—proved to be a major influence for Hannah Arendt and other writers and theorists across a number of disciplines. Concentrationary Art presents the first translation into English of Jean Cayrol’s key essays on the subject, as well as the first book-length study of how we might situate and elaborate his concept of a Lazarean aesthetic in cultural theory, literature, cinema, music and contemporary art.

Festschrift Rufus H. Gouws Willem Botha,Paul Mavoungou,Dion Nkomo,2013-06-01 The range of languages covered by the lexicographic investigations reported on, e.g. Afrikaans, English, Northern Sotho, Yilumbu, Fang, French and Dutch is a clear indication of the wide-ranging influence of Rufus Gouws, to whom the work is dedicated.

Rewriting the Past William VanderWolk,2023-12-11 Patrick Modiano (1945-) has published seventeen novels over the past twenty-seven years and is considered one of France's foremost writers. His first three works, dealing principally with the German occupation of France during World War II, are generally considered to have led to a reconsideration of the Gaullist myth which endured for twenty-five years after the war. Along with Marcel Ophuls's film, The Sorrow and the Pity, Modiano's novels opened French eyes to the more ambiguous role played during the occupation by the average French citizen. His subsequent novels have continued to probe the relationship between history, memory and fiction. This study will be of interest to readers of French fiction and history as it looks at their relationship to memory and shows that the three are inextricably linked in a way that enriches our understanding of our past, whether it be collective or personal. Modiano, while seemingly obsessed with his own past, in fact indicates an opening toward the future by attempting to put the past to rest in his fiction.

Anamnesia Peter Collier,Anna Magdalena Elsner,Olga Smith,2009 Memory has always been crucial to French literature and culture as a means of mediating the relationship between perception and knowledge of the individual coming to terms with his identity in time. Relatively recently, memory has also emerged as the key force in the creation of a collective consciousness in the wider perspective of French cultural history. This collection of essays, selected from the proceedings of a seminar on 'Memory' given by Dr Emma Wilson at the University of Cambridge, offers a fresh evaluation of memory as both a cultural and an individual phenomenon in modern and contemporary French culture, including literature, cinema and the visual arts. 'Anamnesia', the book's title, develops the Aristotelian concept of anamnesis: recollection as a dynamic and creative process, which includes forgetting as much as remembering, concealment as much as imagination. Memory in this extremely diverse range of essays is therefore far from being presented as a straightforward process of recalling the past, but emerges as the site of research and renegotiation, of contradictions and even aporia.
