Con Pollo Loco: Temo Fabiano,2019-06-02 I was fed up with the laws and how the government political system was able to have a double standard. The laws didn't apply to the wealthy or the politicians. I had made the decision; it was time. I had been planning and plotting this for over a year. No more waiting. I could no longer just sit around and let things take their own course. My plan was a movement and that movement was called. Con Pollo Loco: With Crazy Chicken. I choose it more just to be an ass.-It had no real meaning but it made me laugh. So that was what it was going to be. My plan was actually very simple. I was going to assassinate an unethical local political figure and make the country stand up and take notice of my movement. Oh, we weren't going to assassinate him the way you think; there would be no violence, no killings, only an assassination of their character, and well, maybe their job and the lifestyle they were enjoying at the expense of others. The politician would not be able to brush this under the rug. I was going to make sure that when the event took place, there would be no turning back. I had chosen my mark: Bruce Pearson, the Oakland county executive... his time was coming .I was going to make sure that when the event took place, there would be no turning back. He would have to either make changes or resign. I worked on the specifics of the plan for a year. I wanted to make sure there was no way Pearson could get out or get away with this again. Once the assassination was completed, I would post it to the web and wait to see how the citizens of America would take or embrace or maybe smash this movement.... I woke the following morning, slowly. I had been up late watching to see if anyone had viewed the youtube video we posted and sometime around 4am I went to bed. It was approximately 6 hours after the Assassination took place. As I was lying in the bed trying to wipe the sleep from my eyes, I hear a yell that shoots me up from my slumber. It is Jake, Hey, man, get out here; this is crazy! We hit 80,000 and its going up faster than I can even say. It has gone viral. Your video has gone viral! I rushed out into the room to look at the computer to see what Jake was screaming about and sure enough the video had gone viral. Overnight sensation some would say. I was excited. But then, as the counter kept rising, I had a sinking feeling in my stomach. I was not going to survive this. Oh, but, Bruce Pearson wasn't going to be able to survive this either. But holly crap it was happening. We all yelled and laughed and jumped up and down. We had posted the actual video onto youtube from a site on the other side of town and at a McDonald's. With a lap top that was old and outdated and then Tossed in a dumpster. Over the next several weeks, we all continued to go to our jobs and live life as usual. The only thing was that, silently across the country, cell groups were forming in mass putting out copy-cat reproductions. They were posting daily that they had joined the movement of Con Pollo Loco and they too were taking action assassinating people of influence for their lack of character. The internet was exploding with excitement about the movement, so were the news Channels. Fearing some out of control extremist would hop on this bandwagon and do something horrible, the Government was now calling me Public Enemy Number One, and vowed to get me. Instead of being a dumb ass, I should have thought about it, but how could I have known. This was the moment that I realized I had to go. I had to run. I had to leave right then. We knew it had happened. We had talked about it and joked about it, but then, here it was: We had started one of the greatest movements for change in the history books. We shook hands, said goodbye and headed out. I turned and drove off into the early morning sun, not really knowing where I was going or what I was going to do....

Albert Okura The Chicken Man AuthorHouse, 2014-04-03 At a growth rate of baby chick to full adult in less than two months, chickens are one of the fastest growing food source known to man. It seems that chickens were put on earth to supply the world's population with eggs and meat. This book tells the story of Albert Okura's belief that his destiny in life is to sell more chickens than anyone else in the world. Although sounding preposterous at first glance, it needs to be noted that Colonel Sanders did not sell his first franchise until he was 60 years old. Albert was born in 1951 and grew up with the fledgling fast food industry. His first full time job was working at Burger King as a hamburger cook. Recognizing that mental toughness as well as the ability to train, develop, and motivate others was critical for long term success, Albert gravitated to those who inspired him. Lessons learned from life experiences helped him realize his destiny. In 1984, at the age of 32, Albert opened a rotisserie chicken restaurant with help from his uncle. Albert has become Southern California's foremost expert on mass producing, tender and moist rotisserie chickens. Juan Pollo is now poised to go into the bigtime. This is their story.
