The proud princess Ashaki however has no desire to be queen over Kush, as can be seen in the following exchange between the princess and her father: "Kush is one of the most splendid and powerful countries in the world. It should be every girl's dream to be a queen over such a wonderful land!" "But I am a princess now! Why do I need to go to Kush to be princess there?" "Ah, Ashaki," sighed the king in an exasperated tone. "Even princesses have responsibilities. Our people count on us." "I've already heard this part, father. I can not marry Machupa and that's final! If he is so great, let a Kushite girl marry him!" ... Of course, the princess does agree to go to Kush with her friends to see once and for all what the country is like and to meet its heir prince... with an outcome unexpected by everyone.
