United States Army Special Forces In DESERT SHIELD/ DESERT STORM: How Significant An Impact? Major William M. Johnson,2014-08-15 This study investigates the contributions made by the U.S. Army Special Forces (SF) during the Persian Gulf conflict. Particular emphasis is placed on each mission performed by the SF during operations DESERT SHIELD/ DESERT STORM. Emphasis is placed initially on the building-block foundation of how a Special Forces Group (Airborne) is organized, paying particular attention to the operational A-detachment and the makeup of the SF soldier, which is paramount to this study. Brief accounts and descriptions are made of the various missions assigned to SF's coalition warfare support, which involved providing ground truth and close air support to the Arab-allied units, border surveillance; direct action; special reconnaissance; and combat search and rescue. This provides a base of knowledge into the myriad of operations conducted by the SF during Operations DESERT SHIELD/STORM. The study concludes by examining published quotes from key leadership within the Department of Defense which provides this study with a measurable means of determining what significance the missions executed by the SF did have on the success of DESERT SHIELD/STORM.

Driven by a total force policy and the robust defense budgets of the 1980s, the ANG had developed into a true force in reserve that demonstrated a high degree of professionalism. Contents: introduction (ANG aviators have participated in wars and contingencies since 1916); leaning forward (the ANG pushed to be 'in the hunt' during the PGC); redefining the ANG (volunteerism is emphasized and tailored forces are packaged); validating the total force (ANG members performed well during the PGC). Desert Shield to Desert Storm Dilip Hiro,1992 In this perceptive and detailed account of the second Gulf War, Dilip Hiro, author of the much-acclaimed book The Longest War, reveals the complex political-economic motivation and diplomatic maneuvering that preceded the 42-day conflict as well as the historical causes and consequences of the war. He shows how Saddam Hussein, encouraged by internal discontent in Kuwait and angered by Kuwait's attempts to undermine Iraq's economy by depressing the price of oil by flooding the international market, made a grievous miscalculation in his invasion of Kuwait. Intent on halting the rise of the United States as the sole superpower in the region, Hussein instead enhanced Washington's power and prestige and curtailed Iraq's independence.

Desert Shield/Storm Logistics Joan Hawkins,1999-05 Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm involved the largest rapid movement of troops and supplies ever undertaken by the U.S. military. This report determines the DoD's ability to supply troops deployed to Saudi Arabia with the necessary support items and repair parts and the lessons learned by the services in the Desert Shield/Storm conflict. The authors visited military units of the Air Force, the Army, the Marine Corps deployed in Saudi Arabia and Bahrain that used a wide variety of weapon systems and services. They also obtained observations on logistics support from military officials who had been involved in Desert Shield and Desert Storm.
