The Book of Nice Josh Chetwynd,2013-01-01 Nice is the secret ingredient to a better life. It makes us happy. It may even be what makes us civilized—when we say thank you, shake hands, send flowers, we're doing the nice things that bring people together. ?A compulsive and chunky book for lovers of trivia, popular history, customs, and culture—and a perfect gift to say "you're nice!"The Book of Nice is an entertaining, quirky compendium of those signs, traditions, and expressions that we so often take for granted, yet turn out to be quite fascinating. It's about why we cover a yawn (originally to prevent evil spirits from entering our bodies, now to hide the impression that something's boring us). About holiday traditions—It's thanks to Guy Lombardo's December 31 broadcast in 1929 that we now sing "Auld Lang Syne" on New Year's Eve. About customary offerings—the wedding cake evolved out of the Roman use of wheat as a symbol of fertility (and it's much tastier than bits of grain). And about those simple yet essential niceties—how Thomas Edison championed an obscure term, "hello" (if Alexander Graham Bell had gotten his way, we'd all be saying "ahoy"). Why not put a little nice in your day?

Victorian Valentines, 2012 The most romantic and florid expressions of love were the fashion in the Victorian Age, which was to be expected of a time that masked and ornamented the erotic impulse. The end of that era was coincident with the golden age of the postcard (1890 to World War 1) and so we have tens of thousands of Valentine's Day postcards, many displaying high levels of imaginations and design. Each age leaves an impact of its character in its greeting cards and other paper ephemera. We see in the beautiful postcards of the late Victorians that era's predilections in both love and design. The imagery in Victorian Valentines Postcard Book is largely formal because, to the Victorians, love was a serious business. We see beautiful women, well-groomed children, and the classical February 14 icons of cherubs, ornate hearts and many beautiful flowers. This is a thoroughly decorated universe, featuring baroque typography, bows and ribbons everywhere, and the occasional touch of lace. So felicitously do Valentine's Day and Victoriana mesh that much of what we think of as traditional Valentine's Day imagery is Victorian in origin. We have selected 30 favorites from our collection for this gathering. That complex of attitude and tendencies that we call the Victorian Age did not, of course, vanish on the Queen's death in 1900. It persisted and evolved until the First World War. For this book we have confined ourselves to postcards published before 1910.

Valentines Treats and Tips Oludayo Fawusi, 2015-09-28 One of the most important things for either a man or woman to know or at least make the effort to learn, is what makes their significant other tick. You must be alert and attentive to the wants and the needs and the desires of the other, put them first in your life. In order to make Valentine's Day a spectacular it's essential that you truly know the heart and desires of your mate. The investment of time and effort and thought during the year leading up to Valentine's Day are critically important. The expenditure of that time and effort to gain that knowledge is the investment that shows the love for one another is not just a one day a year thing. Real love is earned every day of the year and not just on special occasions. It is not enough to buy a card and some flowers the day before or the day of Valentine's Day. It truly is not the present or the card or the flowers that express the messages you want to communicate to the loved one you chose above all others. The present is the time and the effort as well as the card and the flowers together that is the ultimate expression of the love you feel and the love you share. You can only fail to show your love and cause the "I am taking you for granted" feeling if you don't make the properly directed effort to be actually interested in your loved one every day. Then you can show on one day, Valentine's Day, what effort you have made all year long to that one person you love. The evidence of your efforts is the actual gift on Valentine's Day. The time it took you to think ahead, find out what was important to the one you love and to arrange the shopping spree, the purchase of the jewellery, the tickets to the game or the show or to prepare the special meal is actually the gift of love. Properly directed, thoughtful time and effort throughout the year are the evidence of your love. The card and the flowers and the unexpected actions are intended to reveal the evidence of your love. You must give of yourself in order to give the love you want to share with your loved one. The day to day effort you expend to know and to understand the one you love is what is important. Finding out their inner secrets and wants and needs is the effort required to make a Valentine's Day special. If both the man and the woman make that daily effort to know one another better every day, then there will be love.
