Winning Wonderland A L Nelson,2020-11-18 Alice was in Wonderland. But what started as a Christmas romance contest became a fight for survival when Wonderland turned deadly. Alice Crockett loved beaches and palm trees but gambled on winter in the mountains of Montana, hoping for true love and an instant family. Resort owner and single father Owen Rudd's choice would decide the fate of his family. But his young children made their own choice, a potentially fatal one. They ran away. Owen led a search and rescue party on snowmobiles to locate his missing children. The clock was ticking. Told to stay put, Alice struck out alone and on foot, in the beginnings of a blizzard that soon swallowed her up. As they searched separately through the storm, Alice and Owen each blamed themselves for the potential tragedy. In the end, the pair would have to find and rely on each other to survive. Because the blizzard wasn't the only threat the wilderness had up its sleeve. There was far deadlier to come. If you like heartwarming romance, gripping suspense, and unexpected twists, you'll love this page-turning tale set against majestic mountains and impossible odds. Buy Winning Wonderland today for an entertaining Christmas romance you won't soon forget.
