Iron Dawn Richard Snow, 2016-11-01 "An utterly absorbing account of one of history's most momentous battles" (Forbes) that not only changed the Civil War but the future of all sea power—from acclaimed popular historian Richard Snow, who "writes with verve and a keen eye" (The New York Times Book Review). No single sea battle has had more far-reaching consequences than the one fought in Hampton Roads, Virginia, in 1862. The Confederacy, with no fleet of its own, took a radical step to combat the Union blockade, building an iron fort containing ten heavy guns on the hull of a captured Union frigate named the Merrimack. The North got word of the project, and, in panicky desperation, commissioned an eccentric inventor named John Ericsson to build the Monitor, an entirely revolutionary iron warship. Rushed through to completion in just one hundred days, it mounted only two guns, but they were housed in a shot-proof revolving turret. The ship hurried south from Brooklyn, only to arrive to find the Merrimack had already sunk half the Union fleet—and would be back to finish the job. When she returned, the Monitor was there. She fought the Merrimack to a standstill, and, many believe, saved the Union cause. As soon as word of the fight spread, Great Britain—the foremost sea power of the day—ceased work on all wooden ships. A thousand-year-old tradition ended and the naval future opened. Richly illustrated with photos, maps, and engravings, Iron Dawn “renders all previous accounts of the encounter between the Monitor and the Merrimack as obsolete as wooden war ships” (The Dallas Morning News). Richard Snow brings to vivid life the tensions of the time in this “lively tale of science, war, and clashing personalities” (The Wall Street Journal).

Stargazer Girl Stargazer Press,T R Woodman,2019-05-28 Book 4 finale of the completed 4 book series. A determined girl will cross the galaxy, risking everything she holds dear to find the one thing that's missing ... Pursuing answers to mysteries has led Evelyn to being kidnapped, imprisoned, tortured, poisoned, battling bionic super-soldiers and sea monsters, and maybe worst of all ... other teenage girls. So, when she is confronted with another mystery involving the same colonists who have ridiculed, hunted and exiled her, she's certain it will bring nothing but heartache. But her head can't convince her heart of this truth. Even though she finally has everything she wants-freedom to trek the galaxy; the respect, if not the admiration of the colonists; the boy, her first friend and first love-the aching void in her chest tells her that something is still missing. So, with thoughts and feelings she cannot explain to herself, let alone to those she loves, Evelyn will throw herself into another mystery-one that will span the galaxy and may cost her everything she holds most dear, all with the hope she'll find that 'something' that's missing ... a place to call home. Stargazer Girl is the book 4 finale in T.R. Woodman's young-adult sci-fi series.
