Jason Hazeley,Robin Halstead

The Ancient World in Silent Cinema Pantelis Michelakis, Maria Wyke, 2013-08-15 The first systematic attempt to focus on the instrumental role of silent cinema in early twentieth-century conceptualizations of the ancient Mediterranean and Middle East. It is located at the intersection of film studies, classics, Bible studies and cultural studies.

The Oshu Kendo Renmei Paul Budden, 2017-04-21 The 〇sh〇 Kendo Renmei documents kendo's beginnings and establishment in the UK, its spread into Europe, and the formation of the 〇sh〇 Kendo Renmei, forerunner to the European Kendo Federation. It explores the link with the UK's judo clubs, namely the Budokwai and the Anglo Japanese Jujutsu and Martial Arts Association (later known as the Anglo Japanese Judo Club), that were instrumental in kendo's introduction in the UK. With extensive commentary by Roald Knutsen, one of the UK's kendo pioneers, it also profiles the efforts of others such as Horie Etsuko, R.A. Lidstone, 〇saki Shintar〇 and Okimitsu Fujii. Outside of the UK, The 〇sh〇 Kendo Renmei examines the contributions of such people as Hungarian Count Robert von Sandor, Jacques Dupont, Alain Floquet and Shiga Tadakatsu as they sought to establish kendo in Europe and aim for the foundation of a European governing body. The efforts of the All Japan Kendo Federation and prominent Japanese instructors in promoting kendo in the UK and Europe are also documented.

Bollocks to Alton Towers Alex Morris, Jason Hazeley, Joel Morris, Robin Halstead, 2006-03-02 The British Lawnmower Museum, Keith Harding's World of Mechanical Music and Mad Jack's Sugar Loaf. In a world of theme parks, interactive exhibits, over-priced merchandise and queues, don't worry, these are names to stir the soul. Reassuring evidence that there's still somewhere to turn in search of the small, fascinating, unique and, dammit, British. In a stumbling journey across the country in search of the best we have to offer our intrepid heroes discovered dinosaurs in South London, a cold war castle in Essex, grown men pretending to be warships in Scarborough, unexplained tunnels under Liverpool and a terraced house in Bedford being kept warm for Jesus's return. And along the way they met the people behind them all: enthusiasts, eccentrics and, you know, those who just sort of fell into looking after a vast collection of gnomes ... Makes you proud!

A Dictionary of English Surnames P. H. Reaney, R. M. Wilson, 1991 This classic dictionary explains the origins of over 16,000 names in current English use. It will be a source of fascination to everyone with an interest in names and their history. This classic dictionary answers questions such as these and explains the origins of over 16,000 names in current English use. It will be a source of fascination to everyone with an interest in names and their history.

Roentgen Examinations in Acute Abdominal Diseases Johan Cappelen Frimann-Dahl, 1951

Far from the Sodding Crowd Jason Hazeley, Robin Halstead, 2007 Britons work longer hours than almost any other nation in Europe. But how do we spend our precious days off? Slouching in vast herds beneath the neon canopy of some indistinguishable out-of-town shopping centre? Peering up aisles of self assembly wardrobes? What the hell are we doing with our leisure time?

Suicide Richard Simonetti, S. Mc Alonan, 2010 Si l'existence humaine etait contenue dans les limites du berceau a la tombe, le suicide serait sans doute la grande solution aux problemes et aux souffrances de la Terre. Mais, nous sommes des etres immortels. Nous avons deja vecu avant le berceau et nous continuons a vivre apres la tombe, quand nous payons les consequences de ce que nous avons fait de notre existence et de notre corps. Il manque à ceux qui se précipitent dans cet abîme un minimum de connaissances sur les conséquences nefastes du suicide. Cette fausse issue, à travers laquelle ils tentent de fuir leurs problèmes, les plonge dans des tourments mille fois plus accentués. C'est cet éclaircissement qu'offre ce livre, qui se base sur la Doctrine Spirite démontrant le contact entre la Terre et l'Au-delà. Il nous invite à réfléchir sur la tragédie vécue par les suicides.

Extremely Entertaining Short Stories Stacy

AUMONIER, 2012-09-30 Short Stories of World War 1 and the 1920s, some funny, some poignant, by the author whom John Galsworthy rated "one of the best short-story writers of all time";.

Specimen Days Michael Cunningham, 2007-04-01 In each section of Michael Cunningham's bold new novel, his first since The Hours, we encounter the same group of characters: a young boy, an older man, and a young woman. In The Machine is a ghost story that takes place at the height of the industrial revolution, as human beings confront the alienating realities of the new machine age. The Children's Crusade, set in the early twenty-first century, plays with the conventions of the noir thriller as it tracks the pursuit of a terrorist band that is detonating bombs, seemingly at random, around the city. The third part, Like Beauty, evokes a New York 150 years into the future, when the city is all but overwhelmed by refugees from the first inhabited planet to be contacted by the people of Earth. Presiding over each episode of this interrelated whole is the prophetic figure of the poet Walt Whitman, who promised his future readers, It avails not, neither time or place . . . I am with you, and know how it is. Specimen Days is a genre-bending, haunting, and transformative ode to life in our greatest city and a meditation on the direction and meaning of America's destiny. It is a work of surpassing power and beauty by one of the most original and daring writers at work today.

The Iron Curtain Over America John Beaty, 2016-10-13 This book is unique in that it not only discusses the internal decay and the external disasters which threaten the life of American people (in fact, of ALL the people), but diagnoses the growing cancer of which they are merely the symptoms. Going behind the iron curtain of propaganda, censorship and deception, the author, former Colonel of the Military Intelligence Service, gives to the reader the first comprehensive documented account of the origin, the scope, and the intentions of the insidious forces working from within, which are seeking to destroy Western civilization. An honest and courageous dispeller of the fog of propaganda in which most minds seem to dwell. - Lt. General P. A. Del Valle, USMC (ret.) I think it ought to be compulsory reading in every public school in America. - Senator William A. Langer, former Chairman, Judiciary Committee This book is a magnificent contribution to those who would preserve our American ideals. - Lt. Gen. Edward M. Almond, USA (ret.)

Sarah Bishop Scott O'Dell, 1980 Grade Level 6.2, Book# 385, Points 7.

Peter Howson Robert Heller, 2003 Peter Howson's last decade has been tumultuous. He has suffered personal crises, war, controversy and mental and physical collapse. This is the story of a man who through it all has pursued his high ideals of drawing and painting with commitment and success.
