Restoration of Amundsen's lantern slides Pietro Librici, 2017-06-03

The book presents for the first time the restoration of Amundsen's glass slides, one of the most beautiful collections of slides in the world.

The 248 slides are the photographic testimony of three great explorations: the Northwest Passage (1903-1906), the conquest of the South Pole (1910-1912) and the Maud expedition (1918-1925).

Discovered by chance in 1986, the slides were restored in 2009 by Pietro Librici at the National Library of Norway, in a continuous cooperation with the institute team. The restoration is presented analytically in its methodological, technical, scientific and operational aspects, constituting an updated model of intervention. Critical historical studies that accompanied the restoration and the expressive features of the slides have also led the author to identify Amundsen's own style which lies between documentary photography and photographic documentation and make the book a particular opportunity to immerse in the charm of polar expeditions, in the first years of the 20th century when the poles were the only areas of terra incognita left on the world map.

Great Spires Robert Odell Bork,2003 Great spires designed in the Gothic era continue to dominate the skylines of many European cities even today. With their great height and complex detailing, spires like those of Chartres, Strasbourg, Vienna, and Antwerp, and their more recently completed cousins at Cologne and Ulm, rank among the most fantastic products of the medieval architectural imagination. This book traces the development of this major monument type from its pre-Gothic roots through its post-medieval reception, with particular emphasis on the flowering of spire construction in the late Middle Ages. Along the way, it explores the complex layering of religious and political significations in these ambitious projects.

Diese Arbeit beschreibt mit einer chirurgischen Präzision, wie die ethischen Gesetze in den christlichen Ländern, und die bis heute den Stellenwert der Frau, der Erde und der Tiere bestimmen, mutwillig aus Macht - und Profitgründen, vor 2000 Jahren verändert wurden.
