Bird Dogs Ray Prunty Holland,1948

The American Hunting Dog Warren H. Miller,2015-06-15 Excerpt from The American Hunting Dog: Modern Strains of Bird Dogs and Hounds, and Their Field Training This little volume is written to furnish an up-to-date book confined exclusively to the breeds of American hunting dogs in use to-day. Without a dog, sports afield nowadays are apt to prove rather barren in results in the game bag. Never before have American sportsmen relied so much on the dog as a finder of game. Our coverts, while holding their own and somewhat increasing, are far depleted compared to the abundance that obtained thirty years ago. It takes the fine, sensitive gift of a dog's instinct to locate game nowadays. Without him the day is likely to be one of exasperation, due to game flushing without warning or good covers hunted without starting anything. With him a satisfactory day's bag can be had in any part of our country where there is wild land, even quite near the great cities. The love of a dog is a fine and noble thing. There is no quid pro quo in his affection. He has no thought of service for hire, nor reward for his invaluable aid, save that you love him as he loves you. Jane Stewart, a young dietitian working at a hospital, had everything going for her--.. Until one night, in one unexpected event, life seemed to turn upside down. Struggling with self-loathing and visual distortion, she found solace in her computer, her books and her work--. Until one night she logged into her computer did she find herself on the road that took her to a place in her soul that she never thought she would see again.

A Preacher's Tales Henry A. Buchanan,2011-09-07 A Preachers Tales is a book about preachers who are unusual, sometimes eccentric people. Buchanan is one of them. In fact, a little bit of him is to be found in many, if not most of them. Buchanan is tolerant of all of them, and a few of them he even loves, or likes because they are so much like him. The prime redeeming feature in all of them is humor. Some of the things the preachers do and say are downright funny, but mostly the humor is subtle and only crops up after the reader has read and thought and reflected on what happened and what was told. Its not all humorous. Preaching is a serious business. The Preacher deals with a profound issue. He is holding Gods Hand with one hand and a mans hand with the other. What the preacher says and does may determine the course of human events because in some measure it reflects or communicates the mind and the saving grace of God. Behold here the Preacher Man at work and at play.
