Suzanne Brodine

Prince of Fire Rue Volley,2014-02-25 This is the THIRD and Final book in the series.Waking up in Hell is not where anyone wants to be, but this is exactly what has happened to Halo Bay. After being tricked into a lustful night of pleasure she now accepts her new responsibility as a caregiver to a child she finds impossible to hate. Just as she starts to regain her strength, a new player enters the game that may cause her to let her guard down when she needs it the most. After a daring attempt at freedom she will soon discover that her feelings will need to be set aside if she is to fulfill her obligations as a protector of humanity and a branded Hellhound. Vampires, Hellhounds and Werewolves will need to unite as one, if they plan to defeat the ultimate enemy that is rising from the depths of Hell itself. As the blood moon hangs high in the night sky the true fight for humanity will begin.

Hellhound III Suzanne Brodine,2022-06-25 President-Elect Yardley has vowed to end the Culler war by any means necessary, but that promise to the voters of the Sol Coalition will ask more from him than he ever realized. As the secrets of the Coalition's research division are revealed, he may find that 'anything' is more than he can stomach. And that it has already been done. In order to save Malak's life, and the lives of thousands of civilians, Maker is forced to admit that she knows about the existence of the Legion. Malak knows he owes her a debt. He does not want to admit it or to think of any human soldier as capable of helping the Legion, but without her on his side he could lose more than one battle. What he stands to gain far outweighs the annoyance of having weak humans serving alongside Legionnaires. Together they will face the enemy at its strongest - and their government at its worst.
