Fire Pony Sheila Ruble,2019-03-25 Cricket O'Conner's summer hasn't shaped up the way she'd hoped. She's stuck training a headstrong colt for her mother and dry lightning storms have increased the threat of wildfire. Even buying a uniquely painted model horse does little to help Cricket's growing unease. There's something odd about the little horse. Is it just her imagination, or does it sometimes seem to talk to her?After an especially stormy night, the Little Bear fire is racing down the valley, filling the sky with smoke. Two young horses have disappeared, forcing Cricket to make a choice. Should she help her mother defend the house and barn from flames or listen to the Fire Pony when he urges her to find the missing colts? She's already helped rescue thirty cats and a litter of Border collie pups. Isn't that enough? She doesn't know what to do and time is running out.
