Carol A. Robi

A Different Kind of Witch Carol A. Robi, 2016-02-11

Ages 15+ A fledgling Faery and a vengeful Witch meet at school and become friends, but their friendship is potent, and must remain hidden. It's happened before, and that nearly tore apart the Supernatural Realm. Sophie Leighton has just discovered that she is a Faery. Like all fledglings, she's officially a member of the Supernatural Realm. Finding herself in a new world of mystery, magic and supernatural beings, Sophie has to navigate her way in her new identity at her new school- Drachenburg School for the Supernaturals. Boke Maiga is a powerful Witch from a lineage of one of the most powerful and revered sorcerers of all time. She has emerged from years of hiding- intent on avenging her mother's death. Someone killed her mother, and the young Witch won't stop until she knows who is responsible. And she intends to start by recruiting the help of the popular freshman Faery, Sophie. Sophie must now make a decision fast, on whether to let past secrets remain buried, or tread the dangerous waters with her new friend to unveil the secrets of the past - secrets that involve her parents, and even threaten their freedom.
