WHO IS DONALD TRUMP? Donald Trump and Hillary Clinton's Race To The White House Michael Brixton,2020-05-25 You either LOVE or HATE Donald Trump, and the same goes with Hillary. They are two completely different characters. Donald is a self-made billionaire that lives by his own rules. He wants to take on the establishment. Being worth millions of dollars he doesn't have to sit down with any major campaign contributor. He doesn't have to take notes with campaign staff members to make sure that his talking points match the requested criteria of the funders. Trump is funding himself in the upcoming 2020 election, a rather unique feat in history, and this means that being free from the clutches of financial political handlers, Trump is not constrained to what some wealthy financier wants him to do. Putting the whole political system on its head, Trump is the wealthy financier and candidate rolled into one. This election has the potential to be one of the greatest political match ups in history. What Readers are Saying: This was a very interesting read on two very polar opposite politicians. I enjoyed the authors writing style and it was done very well.

Hillary Clinton Shattered Benjamin Free,2017-06 Hillary Clinton Shattered How Donald Trump Shattered Hillary Clinton and the Democratic Party So, how did a man who made his fortune via business deal and celebrity appearances beat out someone who was, on many occasions, said to have been the most qualified presidential candidate the country had ever seen? In order to breakdown that question, one has to consider all of the factors that played in her nomination: her win over Bernie Sanders and the controversy that surrounded it, the issue with her emails and why this issue was not only important but completely dissected by the public, and one has to go back so far as to take a look at her political career and some of the decisions she made along the way. No one is perfect, but everything plays into a one-track mindset that would eventually grate the nation the wrong way. The nominee platforms for president would become so skewed that many would lose hope, swaying their votes in favor of the bombastic personality simply to spite Hillary. But, to what end? Why would over half of an entire nation elect a man with no political career over a woman whose entire career was political? What made Donald Trump so palatable to the majority of Americans? Why in the world was Hillary Clinton deemed more of an animal than a rich white man with no political experience whose basic locker room talk surrounded around the topic of forcing himself onto women and then allowing it because he was rich. The answer is clearer than one might suspect and not at all laid where one might try to look. The answers within this book will wring up the dearest of hearts and anger the most passive of individuals. But, it is a modern reality the world is now currently facing, and in order to never repeat the past, people have to understand what happened. It is imperative that we understand what truly happened.
