Achtung-Panzer! Heinz Guderian, 1995 This is one of the most significant military books of the twentieth century. By an outstanding soldier of independent mind, it pushed forward the evolution of land warfare and was directly responsible for German armoured supremacy in the early years of the Second World War. Published in 1937, the result of 15 years of careful study since his days on the German General Staff in the First World War, Guderian's book argued, quite clearly, how vital the proper use of tanks and supporting armoured vehicles would be in the conduct of a future war. When that war came, just two years later, he proved it, leading his Panzers with distinction in the Polish, French and Russian campaigns. Panzer warfare had come of age, exactly as he had forecast. This first English translation of Heinz Guderian's classic book - used as a textbook by Panzer officers in the war - has an introduction and extensive background notes by the modern English historian Paul Harris.

The Day of the Mountain Timothy Neat, Anne Michaels, 2016 Since entering his eighth decade Neat has concentrated his wide-ranging creativity on the act of drawing, in sketchbooks. Of the four hundred drawings being published, only three have been publicly seen. In this book Neat, the artist, can be seen for the first time - championed by the great art critic John Berger and renowned writer Anne Michaels: these drawings are revelatory. This special signed edition, produced to the highest specification, is limited to 150 copies and is guaranteed to appeal to collectors of fine art and belle-lettres in Scotland and across Europe. Neat's books include The Summer Walkers, Part Seen Part Imagined, a two volume biography of Hamish Henderson and, most recently, These Faces, a collection of photographs and drawings (2013).

Notes from the Hyena's Belly Nega Mezlekia, 2015-04-07 In this acclaimed memoir, Mezlekia recalls his boyhood in the arid city of Jijiga, Ethiopia, and his journey to manhood during the 1970s and 1980s. He traces his personal evolution from child to soldier--forced at the age of eighteen to join a guerrilla army. And he describes the hardships that consumed Ethiopia after the fall of Emperor Haile Selassie and the rise to power of the communist junta, in whose terror thousands of Ethiopians died. Part autobiography and part social history, Notes from the Hyena's Belly offers an unforgettable portrait of Ethiopia, and of Africa, during the defining and turbulent years of the last century.

The Importance of Demographic and Geographical Factors on the Incidence and Outcome of Systemic Small Vessel Vasculitis Associated with Anti-Neutrophil Cytoplasmic Antibodies Maria Weiner, 2019-11-04 The anti-neutrophil cytoplasmic antibody (ANCA)-associated vasculitides (AAV) comprise microscopic polyangiitis (MPA), granulomatosis with polyangiitis (GPA) and eosinophilic granulomatosis with polyangiitis (EGPA). Two serotypes are recognized: myeloperoxidase (MPO)-ANCA and proteinase 3 (PR3)-ANCA. Renal involvement is a common and severe manifestation associated with increased mortality. The incidence varies geographically, but studies are difficult to compare due to heterogeneous methodology and inclusion criteria. AAV is commonly found in the elderly, but there are little data on outcome and optimal treatment in the highest age groups. This thesis focuses on the epidemiology of AAV: incidence, geographical distribution, and outcome. In Paper I annual incidence rates and outcome were compared between nephritis in AAV and nephritis in systemic lupus erythematosus (SLE) in two geographically defined populations in Sweden. Even though SLE is twice as common as AAV, ANCA-associated nephritis outnumbered lupus nephritis by three to one, and was significantly more severe in terms of mortality and development of end stage renal disease. In Paper II associations between ANCA serotype and geographical and demographic factors were investigated in a large multi-centre study of 1408 patients with renal biopsy-proven AAV. PR3-ANCA was associated with male gender, younger age and higher glomerular filtration rate. PR3-ANCA was also associated with higher latitude and lower ultraviolet radiation levels, but analyses of subgroups suggested that genetic rather than environmental explanations might be more important for this geographical gradient. In Paper III a consecutive cohort of 151 elderly patients with MPA and GPA was studied with a focus on treatment, mortality and renal survival. Patients who had received immunosuppressive treatment with cyclophosphamide or rituximab had better survival rates compared to less intensively treated or untreated patients. Severely impaired renal function at diagnosis was associated with worse outcome in terms of both patient and renal survival. In Paper IV the elderly cohort was extended to 202 patients. In this study we found that treatment with cyclophosphamide or rituximab was associated with the development of less permanent organ damage, and not with higher utilization of in-hospital care. However, high doses of glucocorticoids were associated with fatal infections and treatment-related damage.

The Return of the Mother Andrew Harvey,2013-08-20 Adapted from a series of lectures on the historical basis and current resurgence of the sacred feminine, given by Andrew Harvey at the California Institute of Integral Studies in Spring 1994, The Return of the Mother is a profound journey into the heart of the Divine Mother. In this comprehensive and groundbreaking work, mystical scholar Andrew Harvey unearths traces of the sacred feminine in major world religions—Hinduism, Islam (Sufism), Buddhism, Taoism, and Christianity—and in aboriginal and indigenous wisdom traditions. Harvey presents a scathing critique of the patriarchal distortions in religious history and doctrine that have obscured full knowledge of the Divine Mother, and shows how to reintegrate this vital aspect into the spiritual consciousness of humankind. The Return of the Mother offers a radical new perspective, balancing the historical overemphasis on transcendence by honoring the immanence of the divine in passionate engagement in the world. Only by cultivating a direct, respectful relationship with the transformative power of the sacred feminine can we alter our disastrous attitude of dissociation from nature, the body, sexuality, and the details of human life, and generate the energy and compassion needed to reverse the course of destruction we have set the planet—and all of life—hurtling toward. In lively question-and-answer sections, Harvey further illuminates these vital issues and takes a strong stand against our dependence on “gurus” and “masters,” proposing instead an egalitarian model of spiritual community based on intimate groups of mutually supportive guides and friends. The Return of the Mother is an eloquent and passionate call for all of us to rediscover and reclaim an authentic and empowering relationship to the divine, and recreate a sacred life-in-the-world.
