Landuse and Development Ben Wisner, 1977 Monograph comprising 15 essays on land utilization and agricultural development in Africa South of Sahara, with particular reference to environmental and ecological implications - comments on legislation for landscape protection, agrarian reform, irrigation and agricultural production, food shortage, economic implications and various aspects with respect to agricultural policy (esp. In arid zones). ILO mentioned. Bibliography after each essay, diagrams, maps and statistical tables.

Kittens Mini, 2003-05 Small, cute, and full of life, kittens are a joy to watch. At a young age kittens display a remarkable amount of curiosity and intelligence. This BrownTrout 2004 calendar has captured kittens at their best.

Girl Waits With Gun Amy Stewart, 2015-09-01 NATIONAL BESTSELLER. The first in the Kopp Sisters Novel Series, Girl Waits with Gun is an enthralling novel based on the forgotten true story of one of the nation's first female deputy sheriffs. Constance Kopp doesn't quite fit the mold. She towers over most men, has no interest in marriage or domestic affairs, and has been isolated from the world since a family secret sent her and her sisters into hiding fifteen years ago. One day a belligerent and powerful silk factory owner runs down their buggy, and a dispute over damages turns into a war of bricks, bullets, and threats as he unleashes his gang on their family farm. When the sheriff enlists her help in convicting the men, Constance is forced to confront her past and defend her family – and she does it in a way that few women of 1914 would have dared. A New York Times Editors' Choice “A smart, romping adventure, featuring some of the most memorable and powerful female characters I've seen in print for a long time. I loved every page as I followed the Kopp sisters through a too-good-to-be-true (but mostly true!) tale of violence, courage, stubbornness, and resourcefulness.”—Elizabeth Gilbert

Design and Agency John Potvin, Marie-Ève Marchand, 2020-05-14 Design and Agency brings together leading international design scholars and practitioners to address the concept of agency in relation to objects, organisations and people. The authors set out to expand the scope of design history and practice, avoiding the heroic narratives of a typical modernist approach. They consider both how the agents of design construct and express their identities and subjectivities through practice, while also investigating the distinctive contribution of design in the construction of individual identity and subjectivity. Individual chapters explore notions of agency in a range of design disciplines and historical periods, including the agency of women in effecting changes to the design of offices and working practices; the role of Jeffrey Lindsay and Buckminster Fuller in developing the design of a geodesic dome; Le Corbusier's 'Casa Curutchet'; a re-consideration of the gendered historiography of the 'Jugendstil' movement, and Bruce Mau's design exhibitions. Taken together, the essays in Design and Agency provide a much-needed response to the traditional texts which dominate design history. With a broad chronological span from 1900 to the present, and an equally broad understanding of the term 'design', it expands how we view the discipline, and shows how design itself can be an agent for social, cultural and economic change.
