Lord of Deceit Sara Ramsey 2016-06-29 Thousands of readers have already fallen in love with the Briarleys — a family known for centuries of sin and scandal, now on the verge of extinction. In LORD OF DECEIT, Octavia Briarley continues the family tradition of revenge while fighting to reclaim her birthright — but in the Heiress Games, love doesn't always follow the rules... Rule #1: Never give your heart to a rake... Octavia Briarley took society by storm during her debut season — until one disastrous night changed everything, and she was forced to become London's most notorious courtesan. She's already paid the price for trusting too easily, and she won't make the same mistake again. But when she finally gets a chance to take revenge against the cousin who betrayed her, Octavia needs a willing partner for her schemes — someone charming, aristocratic, and devilish. The kind of man she might have married, in a different life. And the kind of man she absolutely can't risk giving her heart to.... Rule #2: Never fall in love with the target... Lord Rafael Emmerson-Fairhurst survived as a spy in Spain through charm and subterfuge. In London, he uses those same skills to pursue justice against those who are above the law. His next mission is Lord Somerville — Octavia's former patron. When Octavia asks Rafe to help sabotage her cousin's house party, he can't refuse. If he can destroy Somerville by using her...well, Rafe never claimed to be a saint, and he never promised to protect her. But he never expected Octavia to be quite so delightful — or quite so inexperienced, given her bold demands and reckless smile. And falling in love is a mistake he's never made before.... Rule #3: Never ignore your destiny... As Rafe and Octavia set out to ruin the most illustrious house party of the summer, they discover that revenge can't possibly compete with the pleasure they find in each other's arms. Can an innocent courtesan and a broken charmer risk losing everything they ever wanted to seize the love they never expected to find? ----- Want to catch up on other books by Sara Ramsey?
